

EMILIA LUCA

Point Zero. The Dawn of the New World

PART I. The Seeking	3
1. Becoming aware.....
2. Facilitations.....
3. Awareness and action.....	15
4. Padre.....	21
PART II. Possible Future.....	28
1. Messages from the future
2. The Father-Mother Creator God started Her Work.....
3. Amplification stations	Error! Bookmark not defined.
4. Social structure starting with the year zero	Error! Bookmark not defined.

PART I. THE SEEKING

1. Becoming Aware

Ever since I can remember,I have been aware that,beyond what I heard in Sunday liturgies,beyond the stories of religious people,there's something subtle and wonderful,something that helps people heal,rejuvenate and love.I felt that "something",that power,when I was in the middle of nature,making me feel like I was becoming one with everything around me,that the walnut-tree and the ladybug,the apple and the butterfly,the dog and the wind,the air and the clouds,are just another expression of ME.

I lived all of these sensations and emotions in all of their plenitude – I felt one with Everything.

I remember these feelings and experiences starting from around the age of 7,and fortunately they continue to this day,although for a period of 10-15 years I have repressed this faculty of feeling and seeing things,wishing I were „like other people".Ever since I was a little girl,I had been told reproachingly that I was not like the other children,like the other girls.Then,after getting married,my husband told me bluntly:she who wants knowledge and God,cannot have a family,she must withdraw in solitude.But I wanted God and my family too,and I knew it is possible.I gave up my spiritual practices on the pressure of others,because I was constantly told I belong in a lunatic asylum;that period of 10-15 years was extremely difficult,and there was something in me that was about to explode,so one day I told my husband:

-Nothing can stop me from doing what I want the most,and if you think that spirituality harms you or our family,it's your problem.Whatever you'll say,I will do as I think fit.

I think it's incorrect to call it spirituality,considering that I renounced myself and my searching to please my family.I found out this way that people are afraid to discover themselves,to discover something that is beyond their comprehension.But whatever I did,they were still unhappy,because I was unhappy too,and unhappiness transfers easily from one to another.How can one be happy,when one renounces a part of herself?

But let me get back to my youth,when all of these feelings of plenitude and love intensified in me around the age of 20,when I fell in love.I remember this moment perfectly.It was the end of August,on a very pleasant summer day,and there was this serenity in the air that seemed to foretell,as I figured out later,what was about to happen to me,as if I was alone in the universe.I was in an institution,going downstairs from the building's first floor,when a peaceful and,at the same time, cheerful music made itself heard.

I went towards the place I heard the music from,and through the opened door I saw a hall full of people, men and women,sitted around a table.Out of everybody present there,I noticed a young,long-haired man and,inspite of the fact that his face was turned away from me, I knew it was HIM,the man I always loved.Although I did not see his face,I knew I know him.I asked somebody what's going on there,and I was told that young man was holding weekly musical auditions in that place.Those were times where you could hardly find any good music to listen to,and that only if you had acces to "Radio Europa Libera",or if someone brought you vinyls from abroad(CD's and DVD's hadn't appeared on the market at the time).A few days later,having some business in that institution,when I knocked on the door of an office,a man's kind voice told me to go in.I entered the room and I was taken aback,unable to articulate a single word;than,after recovering from the shock,I said "Hello!" like a schoolgirl,and that I'm looking for "X"...

-That would be me,he replied.

-That can't be,you could only be his secretary/assistent,certainly not him.

You guessed correctly,it was the very same man that was holding the musical audition.I didn't believe him and I left,asking him to tell me if his boss returned,because I felt that if I stayed there another second,my heart would explode and I would collapse right there in front of him.At the same time,a colossal anger got over me,I felt like crying out:

-Can't you see what's happening with me,don't you recognize me?

I didn't understand where these thoughts were coming from myself,and when I left I told him where he couldg find me,once his boss showed up.

About 15 minutes later, someone knocked at the door, and who do you think it was? It was him, and he kindly told me he really was the person I was looking for, that he'll identify himself if I wanted to, and that I can ask the man who had sent me to him, because he was right there in the hallway. I went out in the hallway, when I heard a voice:

-Oh, I see you've already met. Keep me up to speed with what you'll do.

I couldn't run anymore, I knew I couldn't run, that it's pointless, that this was love from and for eternity. For a while we saw each other daily, I started to know the people who gravitated around him, and I realised that almost all the women were in love with him. That angered me profusely, but at the same time I knew how they felt: how could anyone not be in love with such a man? Then I understood how attracted they were to his charisma, to his way of being and behaving, and to his ability to empathise with them. It surely wasn't easy being in his shoes, with oh! so many tempting women around him. I was falling in love with him deeper and deeper every day, I knew I loved him since the beginning of time, I was toying with him, I was provoking, he only accepted some of the games, not allowing himself to be tempted by my recklessness. Then one day I found out he was married. I froze. He was about 30, he was married and he didn't wear a wedding ring. I strongly admonished him, I felt betrayed (although I didn't have any reason to), but he, with a disarming sincerity, replied:

-I didn't hide anything from you, I assumed you knew I'm married, I have no reason to hide this, I just don't like wearing a wedding ring.

I don't know myself why I thought I had the right to reproach anything to him, what was going on between us was just a spiritual bonding with no inherent commitment implied. That's when I realised he loved his wife, that he loved me too in his own way, that it was time for me to be objective. I loved him and for a long time I thought I can live by his side, finding joy in his successes, feeling sadness for his failures. When I realised that I loved him so much that I could accept anything that would make him happy, I freaked out. And I knew I could live like that, dedicating myself to him with all of my being.

I sensed his career, it fulfilled exactly as I had foreseen it, I felt his life with its joys and sorrows, even in periods of time when we haven't seen each other for years. And so I chose something else,without ever telling him about my feelings or my thoughts,as if I expected him to already know about them.I found love,gentle radiation of all colors,sunshine of all Suns,overwhelming,uplifting,divine.I welcomed it into my heart.He didn't see it,he didn't feel it.And...I got scared.I ran away from the one that had inspired these divine,angelic,and laic feelings.I searched for the profane,I wanted to be like other people(too many times had I been told I'm different).

I have subsequently experienced surrogates of that love,deceit and falsehood.The more estranged I became from him,the more all of these became stronger.But love lingered in my heart,strong,kind,wise,patient.I traveled back in my heart to that love,to find myself once again,to be able to live in the joy of my being.I returned inside my love.My love for him makes my love for God and for other people stromger,greater.Sometimes that love is so deep,so overwhelming that I feel I'm starting to dissolve,to expand in the entire universe.

Many years later,when life facilitated us to meet every now and then,I asked him:

-Please help me understand where I now you from,what ties me so strongly to you.He replied:

-Alright,let's see...

I believe it was enough for me to express my burning desire,when the Universe responded,in an unusual,fascinating way,filled with meaning and love.

Some time passed,during which I went in pilgrimage to the Prislop Monastery,to Arsenie Boca's grave,the one that sanctified his body so profoundly that even when it's freezing cold flowers on his grave stay alive.I lived a state of unimaginable bliss and ecstasy.I suddenly became aware of the whole forest,of all the mountains that surrounded that place,than of all the mountains of the planet and the planet itself,with which I formed a single entity of joy and peace.I than started to perceive the air molecules in that place,I saw them in a way I can't find the words to describe,I simply perceived them,and all those air molecules there was Arsenie Boca;it actually wasn't Arsenie Boca,it was Christ,it was God.After that pilgrimage,while talking to a friend who had also been there with me about my perceptions,everything suddenly dissapeared from my sight,and an enormous,sparkling,gentle Sun appeared in my heart.From the Sun in my heart a ray of light shone right through to the beginnng of time(I simply "knew" this was happening),and an assertive,gentle male voice told me:

-Write everything you see.

Like in a cosmic film,at the end of the ray I saw a glade in which there was a village of wooden houses,with the road between the houses made of something that looked like a mixture of asphalt and marble,of white-gray-ish color.The male voice,as I was looking at all of this,was communicating to me:"Then,at the beginning of times,the people who roamed these places(the Deva-Hunedoara-Prislop area),lived in perfect harmony with God and his entire Creation.Everything in their behaviour expressed joy,love,happiness,peace and serenity,harmony,Life.They simply Existed in Light and in Love.They experienced only love.The entire nature obeyed them,and the desires they emitted from their hearts of light materialised easily.There weren't any pains or sorrows,sickness,or sadness.When they wanted sons or daughters,from the embrace of the woman with the man was emitted so much love and light,that new Suns were born in the sky.The women wore dresses made of a light,natural,green material,with white front and sleeves.They had blonde or brown,long,unbraided hair.The men were tall,with short or long hair,natural clothes,and beige shirts and pants.They were all fit and they formed pairs.Just one woman,who seemed to be some sort of a leader,was single.The man who had brought them to planet Earth in his cosmic spaceship,who was her pair,had left with the spaceship back to his home planet,and she was waiting for his return.But he,however,never did return...

Eons,or maybe just millions of years have passed since then,and now they met again.And HE doesn't know it...

This is where I knew him from,right from the beginnings of planetary times,of human life on Earth.It is magical the way I perceive and see him.I perceive and see him as love,kindness,beauty.Whatever he says or does,that's what I see in him,nothing about these feelings has changed ever since I first met him to this day.I used reason,logic,I reflected and I pondered lots of things about him,but I readily ignored all of his human "defects",because that's what my heart commanded.Than I said to myself: if you have these wonderful feelings,why do you want to split hairs?What do you have to gain?and right I did,because that was a way of keeping my lighthouse on in the waves and storms of life.

Consequently,all I have to do is thank God for letting him in my life.He's got a lot to offer mankind through his profession,perhaps even more,and it's as if I'm waiting for the moment when kindness,love and knowledge will explode from within him like fireworks,for the benefit of others.And because these feelings and emotions exist in me,after deciding to keep at distance from him,I tried to share them with someone else.But the men that entered my life didn't understand this love,or maybe I didn't know how to show it and they broke my heart.When your heart is open,when you offer love,poisoned arrows can easily hurt you.

Maybe I hurt somebody too,but if I did,it was absolutely unintentional,I pay attention to these kinds of things.I chose the laic life and that's what I had,constantly oscillating between happiness and misery.I have now decided to choose a life of love.Of love for myself,for the Creator,for the Creation.I chose to give love to love.It's never too late to change your direction,if it doesn't please you anymore.I have indulged way too much in suffering,blaming those around me that were guilty of verbal and psychological aggression towards me,although they did it with my own acceptance.In a strange,uncomprehensible way,I accepted this,being afraid to make decisions in my favor,being afraid not to hurt others.I hurt them anyway,but most of all I hurt myself.

In the end,I'm still a winner in Life,because I have three wonderful children,for which I thank God all the time,because they're fascinating children,beautiful,kind and with a fine character.I also have that living love that,whichever direction I took in life,I kept in my heart.

But let me me to get back to the first planetary people,these beings that,after preparing planet Earth,with God's grace, by creating all of it's ecosystems,and all of it's Life through repeted expeditions,they created the first colonies,in special areas in the Carpathian Mountains,in Apuseni,in which the energetic connection of the place with the Heavens manifests itself to the maximum.They came from The Great MacroGalactic Central Sun,to populate and prepare our solar system for evolution.

.....

2. Facilitations

Sweet childhood,with terrible frosty weather and the snow going over my knees,with scents of purity and God,when after a day of sleighing,I returned home wet from head to toe from all the snow fighting,my greatest joy was the when the evening sitting of villagers was held at our house.My parents and my neighbours held a sitting every evening,taking turns at each house,where women were spinning and crocheting manually all sorts of little things,and the men were playing cards,drinking warm plum brandy with cumin and sugar and smoking filter-free Marasesti or Carpati.Sometimes the men also brought something to work at the sitting:they were husking corn or they carved wooden tools for their households.

That was also an evening of storytelling.When the sitting took place at our house,my father chopped more wood,the house was warmer,we boiled corn beads sweetened with sugar or honey.In the oven we cooked pumpkin seeds.After a glass of plum brandy,they started telling stories that were fascinating to me; about how to avoid having the cows' milk stolen by wraiths,about encounters they had had with werewolves and dragons,with guardian angels that appear when you're in trouble etc.I was listening to their storie holding my breath,in my bed,under the cool wool blanket,staring at the flame of the petrol lamp(electricity was installed in the village only after my 11th birthday).After a while,the flame seemed to grow in size,it filled the entire room,eventually everything became a flame,my body grew in sync with the flame to unmeasurable dimensions,and than I became the flame itself,and in that state I listened to the stories.It was wonderful!

Some other evenings,my father's sisters came to visit,they read from the bible,I was fascinated when they read from the gospels,when they read about Jesus; I loved Jesus,I still love him now,I wanted to be like him,to love people as much as he did.It was wonderful when they read,because my child imagination took me to those times and places and it was as if I saw it all in reality.Than the interpretation by my father's older sister of what was read took place,and that always made me tremble in fear.It was one thing I understood when the reading took place,and another when she interpreted.From what she interpreted,we were created by a vengeful God that judges you for every thought,that people are just beings of a severe God.I had the same feeling when I went to the village church with my mother,because after every mass I felt tortured with fear of doing something wrong,and oppressed by a merciless God.I refused to believe in that God of hers,and the fear and dilemmas created in my child mind made me decide that God is good,that he loves me,and that's what I believe to this day.

When I turned about 12 I told my mother that I want to be like Virgin Mary.She made the sign of the cross and she told me that God will curse me for having such thoughts,that it's a great sin.I got scared,I didn't understand what I had said wrong,for me the most wonderful thing a woman could have was to be like Virgin Mary – I now know that the purity of the feminine energy can transform and equilibrate anything into peace and joy,and to me She was the quintessence of kindness and purity.Any woman wants to manifest her femininity in the purest form,and wanting the purity of a celestial being is blasphemy for some.You cannot become something you don't want to become,and sooner or later the purity and beauty of the feminine energy will manifest itself in it's plenitude.You can realise how conditioned are some people,when they consider a sin even the most innocent desire of a child to be kind and pure,how conditioned most of us are by the fear of beings superior to us,by those beings to which we pray,how small and helpless,how insecure about our decisions.We are what we think.

In that period,at our house's gate used to come an old man that I talked to.He came out of nowhere,he talked to me and then he'd leave.I don't know why I never invited him in our yard,it's as if I knew he wasn't supposed to com in.I've always searched for him in people,sometimes I'd think I see him,but when I got closer,it was somebody else.I remembered him and I've always looked for him,I felt he was near.I didn't know who he was,until I went to uncle Ion in Ionestii de Arges.All the way to Ionestii de Arges,a translucent being,dresses in white,with it's hands raised laterally,flew in front of the bus.It was like I was dreaming,but at the same time I knew it was real.

I arrived at uncle Ion's,where in order to get to his house,once you entered the gate,you had to climb up a narrow path through a garden.The moment I entered the gate in the garden,a line of pilgrims formed,and in front of me the translucent being appeared again.This time I knew it was Jesus,because it radiated so much calm and kindness,so much love,that you melted in it.All the way to uncle Ion's I wanted to embrace him,and when I arrived and got closer to him,the translucent being merged with him.

Uncle Ion kissed my forehead,blessed me,looked me in the eyes and told me:"We know each other for a long time..." I don't know what happened inside of me that moment,but an overwhelming pain and at the same time a great joy took over me,of such great intensity,that I am now sure if there hadn't been any celestial guardians there I would have died,because I couldn't have coped with such an avalanche of emotions,sensations and feelings.We all sat in the yard,some on the grass,some on chairs,on blankets,we were all so casual,we felt like babies in our mothers' arms.In his gentle and kind presence you feel just like in Heaven.

As a consequence of those strong emotions,that only my heart deciphered,I cried for four straight hours,I sobbed for an entire lifetime and I knew something in me is changing.I knew who uncle Ion was,I knew what great blessing I was given by meeting him.Later on I remembered that he was the old man that used to come to my parents' house when I was a little girl,he used to come in exactly the same form and age as now,I realised that for him the barrier of time doesn't exist,because forty years earlier he came to visit me at the age he is now.A few years later I told him I remember him from my childhood,and he confirmed that we've known each other for a really,really long time.How wonderful and great God is!

I was searching for God beyond religion,beyond dogmas,I wanted to know more,I was interested in anything out of the ordinary,in herbal healers,in priests that healed through prayer,etc.Than,in the 90's,started to appear therapists formed at Djuna school in Russia.One day a colleague from work told me she goes to two biotherapists from Moldova and asked me if I wanted to go too.Because I was intrigued I accepted.They were doing group therapies by inducing a state of deep relaxation with energy inductions,and I wanted to know more about these methods,because about seven years earlier,I solved a health problem...I don't even know exactly how it happened,I just know God's hand was in it...But I better tell what happened:

Between the ages of 12 and 16,I suffered repeatedly from tonsillitis.The last time I had tonsillitis,according to the doctors,I was just hours away from septicemia.I was promptly hospitalized,under penicillin treatment.I was 16 years old.After about 10 days of treatment,after receiving my injection,I told the nurse that my tongue thickened and ants are covering my body.The nurse left the room alarmed,and I slept for about three days,as a consequence of the anti-allergic treatment.I had had an anaphilactic shock,and the anti-allergic treatment made me sleep a lot.Because of the recurring tonsilitis,I developed joint rheumatism,and when I was 19 I was diagnosed with large rheumatic mitral stenosis,inspite of having had very painful weekly moldamin injections between the ages of 16 to 19.Event the thought of getting an injection made me limp with pain.I was then hospitalized for three months in a city hospital,followed by two or three yearly hospitalizations,plus home treatment.

When I was 21 I got amarried,and I had my first baby at 22.The pregnancy period went very well,because it was a time of great joy and spiritual fulfillment,with emotional experiences nearing ecstasy. I was so happy that I was embarrassed to show it,because I knew I wouldn't be understood,or even worse,I'd be misunderstood.My perception of nature and it's beauty,and of people was intensified to the maximum,I felt one with all this beauty,and I easily communicated with the baby I had in my womb.In may,when all the spring flowers were blooming,when the buzzing of insects seemed a joyous symphony,the emotion I felt while watching them was so intense,it hurt.I knew these feelings were transmitted by my baby too,that he too lived these feelings through me.One day,an old woman from the country,seeing I was so excited looking at the pansies that it made me cry,said to me:

-Pick some flowers,sweetie,and eat them,so nothing wrong will happen to your sensitive child.

Maybe we should all learn from our elders,their lessons are ancient,ancestral,like the shamanic ones,for which some people pay good money to learn.

Also at that time,I was looking at myself in the mirror,and get bewildered with how beautiful I was.Perhaps this will seem funny or narcissistic to you,but the only time I ever felt truly beautiful was while being pregnant with my children.To the first child,a boy,I gave birth easily.A few years later,in 1987,after catching a cold,I started feeling more and more fatigued and ill.I was hospitalized,the illness was progressing,I was sent to other clinics in the city for investigations,to confirm the diagnosis.The hospital personnel started acting weird around me,and the nurses,who were my friends(I knew the for over 7 years),avoided looking me in the eyes;the doctor didn't look at me either when doing his visit,and I didn't understand what was going on.

Every time I wanted to talk to my doctor,he would find all sorts of excuses and avoided a discussion,until,one day,I stormed into his office,and asked him to be frank,or else I was going to leave the hospital and go home,because everybody was acting as if I was going to die lately.I told him decidedly that I wasn't going to die and that I want the truth.He than told me that the doctors had decided that it would be best for me to get an operation,that it would be dangerous to wait any longer.I asked:

-Where was I when you decided this?Did anybody ask me?

He was dumbfounded,because other people solded things from their houses,their cars,to be able to handle the expenses,and I,who got all this for free(all hospital personnel liked me and wanted to help me),was turning it down?I refused to think about surgery.My doctor told me:

You're young now,but in 30 years you'll gain weight,you'll have to take a lot of pills that will slowly destroy your liver,and eventually you'll still have to get an operation.What will you do to get well?

-I don't know yet,all I know is that I will get well.

-Well,what can I do for you under these circumstances?!

I asked him to help me if I'll need it,he told me that I'm insane,but that he knows about the power of the human psyche and he promised he would help me.And he kept his word.When I was 30 I gave birth to a girl through a caesarian operation,to which he participated,he also participated at the birth of my third child(also a girl),when I was 40 years old.He was very nervous and he jokingly told me he will surely die if I call him at my fourth birth giving.

I walked out of his office,and in the hallway I met one of the medical gymnastics instructors of the hospital and i told him what the doctor's recommendation was and that I refused it.He told me it would be a good idea to attend gymnastics at 8 A.M.,not when I was scheduled.I started doing all sorts of breathing and gymnastics exercises,that I identified after 1990 as yoga exercises.

At the same time,I was practicing autogenous training,which I had learned from a therapist friend.I had practices these exercises with him for a few times,and when I needed it I suddenly remembered them,I realised I knew what I had to do and what autosuggestions to induce to myself in order to obtain a state of health.I completely forgot about my illness,being more concerned about these psychological healing methods,which fascinated me.I spent then two more weeks in the hospital,than I went back to work and I got on with my life.Three months later I went back to the hospital for a check-up,and the doctor was looking dumbfounded my ecography.He told me that it was impossible,the illness couldn't have involuted like that.I told him:

-I'm healed,I knew it!

To which he replied:

-Let's just call this a diagnosis error,I can't tell people there's been a miracle.Do as I say and don't tell anybody about this.

For 20 years after that episode I didn't get any treatment for my heart,but after this period I seldom had some heart problems,but that only because of my recklessness,of my anger and my discontentment,when because of emotional stress I had fibrillation for a few times;I'm alright though.After those episodes,my mother,who is a very religious person,went to a clairvoyant monk who told her:

-Auntie,your older daughter was about to die,but she put death behind her through her faith.

My mother was shocked and she thought I was down on my knees the whole time,praying,so her attitude towards me changed a bit.I had finally done something that she liked,because she thought I had seen priests.My mother has a cult for priests,she thinks being a priest is the greatest honor,that's why started to be of some value in her eyes.

That's when I realized that I,in perfect harmony with myself,had decided to heal,and God put all the right people in my way and made me remember techniques that were helpful.

I don't deny the power of prayer,of psalms,I like them a lot,but the power is in us.We give power to these prayers,and they give power to our will and desires.

3. Awareness and action

As I mentioned already,when those therapists came to my town,I got an appointment and I went there.They were doing group biotherapy sessions,we were about 10 people,sitting on chairs,with our hands on our knees,our backs straight,relaxed position.We were told to close our eyes and listen to the relaxing music they were playing.I easily slipped into a deeply relaxed state,feeling and seeing myself as a white condor floating above the blue sea,under the sky as blue as the sea,and I lived a sensation of complete freedom,of fusion with everything that exists.I was free,I didn't care about anything,because I knew I was safe,that the Universe doesn't make mistakes,that there's perfect harmony and everything is in it's reight place.I felt good in that state.

At the second biotherapy session,after getting in the deeply relaxed state,in front of me appeared a sword in the form of a cross,beautifully worked,made of a noble metal and ornated with precious stones.I knew it was the Sword of Justice and that it was mine,that it belonged to me.In that moment of awareness,from my chest,a serious,assertive,and at the same time gentle,beautiful,male voice,a voice like I had never heard before,started saying the the Creed.The voice,the prayer and I were one and the same.Then,from my chest a yellow-orange little star detached and started floating around the people in the room.I could see them through the star,just like I would have seen them with my physical eyes,I saw myself sitting on the chair,with my eyes closed,and I wondered at this experience.

At a point,I saw the therapist and one of the pacients sinking gradually in a very dense and fluid darkness,until the darkness completely covered them...I was talking to myself:"Girl,you're losing it,what's going on,can't you see you're hallucinating?"At the same time,something inside of me was telling me to do something,to get them out of that darkness,so I started praying:"Please,my Lord,descend your Light upon them and get them out of the dark.Please,shed your Holy Rays upon them and help them."I don't know where this prayer came into my mind from,but as I was saying the prayer,the dense darkness started to dissipate,than their heads appeared in the light,than their entire bodies,until everything became light.

After the therapy session, on my way home, I was seriously asking myself if I was crazy, being aware at the same time that I was perfectly sane and that what had happened was real, but in a world I didn't know yet. The next morning, the therapist came to the office where I worked and started reproachingly interrogating me:

-What, were you there to spy on me, why did you get involved? I didn't need your help, I could have handled that all by myself.

I was shocked, that meant I wasn't hallucinating, but other questions arose. After explaining to him what had happened, he told me I necessarily had to attend the lectures of the biotherapist Alexandra Moşneaga. I did, and many of my questions were answered. Alexandra, or Şura as friends call her, is wonderful, benevolent and eager to help others, to pass this kind of knowledge to other people, to people who can and are willing to receive it. I've learned many useful things, she is a road opener for people gifted with extrasensorial perception.

Many of the therapists discovered and trained by her (I'm talking about the ones I know) are modest, good-mannered and have good results in the art of healing. I started practicing like I felt, with friends and coworkers, I had nice results, sometimes even shocking, but I stopped after a while because I didn't know how to protect myself from the tendency of those I helped to heal—actually I was helping them find ways to heal themselves—to worship me, to put me on a pedestal I didn't belong. Because I felt and knew I was an instrument of healing energies and all I had to do was to let myself be guided.

I will recount some of my first experiences of energetic therapist, although therapist is too much said, because I experienced this ability just with my colleagues, family and friends. One day, a colleague from work approached me and asked me to help her husband, a famous soccer player from our city, because he couldn't sleep and he was very stressed. After two therapy sessions he felt better, his insomnia was gone, and he started playing good games for the team. My coworkers' questions started coming:

-What did you do, how did you do it?

What was I supposed to tell them? Even today I wouldn't know what to tell them, because everything depends on the momentary inspiration, when things simply happen,when you know what to do and how to do it,as if my presence were enough to put the energies in motion.Of course I could describe the therapeutic process,but in a very little measure,because there isn't a way I could describe the perceptions,emotions and feelings of those moments.Certainly,if I had the talent,I could describe all of these after just a few therapies.

Than,the same colleague,who was about to go to the sea in a couple of days,asked me to help her,because she had a terrible toothache and she didn't have the time to go to the dentist.It was after work hours,so I accepted the challenge.I did what my intuition told me,when she felt a sting in her tooth,than a strong smell of arsenic spread in the room,just like in a dentist's cabinet.I told her I would make her an energetic stopping,because the energetic nerve had been removed(she had told me that the nerve of her tooth needed to be removed).The smell of dentist's cabinet could still be felt the next day in my office,it was felt by others too,and my colleague's family was convinced she had been treated by a dentist.I forgot about all of this when,two weeks after she returned from the sea,she went to the dentist's.The dentist told her she was lucky her stopping had recently fallen off,that she would have been in pain had she went in vacation without a stopping and that he didn't remember taking out the nerve.I was dumbfounded.

I had other "adventures" with that coworker,who,for a while,kept to herself,than came to tell me that she has cancer because her breasts were sore.I did an energetic consultation on her,I told her she has a uterus fibroma and I told her to go to see a doctor and I gave her a recipe of the tea recommended in such situations by the monk Mihail Neamtu.She went to the doctor's,and he told her she doesn't have anything,that nothing shows up on her echographie.She didn't take the tea treatment either.She asked me to see her again,and the information was the same.I insisted she followed the tea treatment.She chose to go to another doctor who also told her she's ok,that the pain in her breasts is probably because of a recent hormonal unbalance.All of this happened from the summer to the fall.Again I forgot about all this,when,on the Christmas eve,my coworker's husband called me to tell his wife was in the hospital,being operated for uterus fibroma.She later told me the doctors said the fibroma had been hidden behind some bones and couldn't be seen.

Another colleague,a baptist,asked me to help her get rid of an unbearable pain in her right arm,that upset her for the last few days.I slowly entered that state of receptivity,and so did she,feeling the pain and illness leaving her body,after which she felt a strong sting in her heart.Also in her heart,I heard her voice saing:

-This is from the devil.

That moment,I said to myself:"Forgive me,Lord,and forgive her too,for she knows not what she is saying."

That's when I understood Jesus Christ,I understood what he meant when he said "Forgive them,Father,for they know not what they are doing".Than she started yelling,telling me her heart hurts,and asked me what I was doing to her.I told her she got back what she gave through her thinking,because I was only doing her good,she was feeling well,her arm didn't hurt anymore,but because she didn't understand with her mind where that good was coming from and because of the false dogmas and beliefs,she hurt herself.I was amazed of how quickly things happened in a state of relaxation,abandonment,of temporary inhibition of the thoughts.

This experience was a good one for me,because it taught me to be more careful.But beyond all this,I was taken over by guilt,helplessness,questions,realizing the many wrong choices I had made in my life,or sins if you will,that made me wonder:"How can you,a sinner,do all this?"That's why,in a moment of sadness caused by the oscillation between doing how I felt and the realization of the mistakes I had made,I entered a church where it was very quiet,I prayed,and I asked:

-Tell me,please,why are you doing this to me?You know the things I did,and yet you repay with something so wonderful?Can I really help people heal,or am I going mad?

Then,three hands of light rested on my head,a state of serenity,of peace took over me and I knew.It is the will of Mother-Father Creator God,who chooses us,we don't choose Him.

False piety doesn't help;if God wants something with you and for you,do good and obey,because He knows your sins,your wrong choices and your hear better than yourself.

Than the fights with my husband started,he constantly told me I belonged in an institution,he attracted my son on his side,and my friends treated me like a sectist(I shared my experiences with him,who should I do that with if not him,I wanted him to rejoice with me,but all I got was insults).It was in vain telling him,my family and my friends that there's nothing magic about what I do,that science will eventually explain what's going on,that I'm a normal person,who just happens to listen to her intuition and the senses that go beyond the rational world and their desire to understand and accept,that everybody has these abilities,but they're just not activated.

I understood then(although I already knew it)that in any field there is pioneering,but that humanity refused because of mystical reasons,old beliefs and religious education to take in consideration the known contemporary healers,like they did with the ones mentioned in religions or legends,with the ones that lived through history on earth.That would have forced them to pay attention,to change their ways of thinking and living.

I remember now of a therapist from Suceava,who told me she was taken to a biotherapist by her mother,to the one that later came to my city,because she was in her final high-school year and she was still the height of a 12 years old.

Am înțeles atunci (deși știam aceasta) că în orice domeniu există un pionierat, dar că umanitatea a refuzat din motive mistice, credințe vechi și educație religioasă să ia în considerare vindecătorii contemporani cunoscuți, așa cum au făcut și cu cei amintiți în religii sau legende, cu cei care au trăit de-a lungul vremurilor pe pământ. I-ar fi obligat la atenție, la a-și schimba modul de viață și de a gândi. Something inside of her unleashed there,something beyond human comprehension happened,because after the first therapy session,when she went out in the street,she was terrified by what she was seeing.All the trees were surrounded by a translucent light,and the people too.Some of them,she said,had a big,pure,bright light,and they were beautiful,some others had a dark light around them and they made her scared.Besides all this,she could see everybody's organs and intestines,thinking she's going crazy.This young woman has chosen,like many others,to dedicate her life to helping those in need.It's worth meeting such people,because their abilities can activate them in others,in the ones around them,qualities that are latent,unmanifested until then.All of these energetic therapists,all of these "awakened" people,have something to say,they are a sign of evolution in the human conscience.

In the same period I learned an energetic charging technique from Djuna's method, which implied a certain ritual and certain steps. I started playfully practicing that charging exercise, without expecting anything. The exercise implied the creation of an imaginary energetic sphere, which you were supposed to visualize, color it, give it a density, then dissipate it. Since I have a great imagination, this exercise was easy for me, and one day, at the end of the exercise, I managed to visualize a white sphere, bright as the sun, to feel it, play with it, pass it from one hand to the other, I felt it alive and I lifted it to my chest. That's when a bright, fluid sphere of light poured out of my chest, entered the sphere I had created, then it springed towards the mountains, the Bucegi mountains, it surrounded the sphinx three times, then it came back in front of me and flowed back in my chest. Better said, I flowed back inside my chest, because I knew that white, fluid, bright light is actually me. What I experienced was alive, pure and beautiful, but above all it was real, it was another reality that I began to be aware of. Back then I didn't know much about the Bucegi Mountains, except for what I had read in geography books, only later I found out they were mountains with a special magnetic resonance, that they are receivers of beneficent cosmic energy, perhaps that the reason I was drawn there like to a magnet.

I was working at a firm that had its quarters at the city's periphery, but also had offices downtown. I was transferred downtown, and after a while, a coworker called me to tell me, asking me not to laugh at him, that when he had headaches and high blood pressure, he would come, under diverse working-related pretexts, to talk to me, because his pain went away and he felt relieved. He discovered this by accident, when he had some business with me, and being very angry and having unbearable headaches, he realized after leaving, that he felt better, without taking any medication and the effect I had over him. I then thought to myself that my presence was good for him, because he was discretely flirting with me, and I considered it's best for me to pretend I didn't notice. All these events seemed to be connected, letting me know I'm on the right path, but I kept resisting for a long time, because accepting such a responsibility involves giving up many things, a lot of changes, and a pure path. Also in that period, I had all kinds of preparatory dreams, as I can tell now, for what I decided to do.

4. Padre

I had this dream in august 1994:”I was on the sidewalk watching the sky,which was very blue,a blue different from anything I had seen before.Than a religious painting appeared in the sky,containing a large image of a dark-haired man,with scrutinizing eyes.I asked myself:”What is he doing there?Who is he?Is it God?Is that how He chooses to show himself to me?” Than another image appeared,of a different man,a black man with grey hair.I was thinking in my dream,because I knew I was dreaming:”Is this how black people imagine God?Who are these two men?”I answered to myself:”It’s ok,I’ll figure out what the deal is with these two images.” I entered the house,when somebody knocked in my kitchen window,I went to the window and I saw two children that were asking me for bread.I gave them bread,putting my hand through the window glass without any resistance,which seemed natural to me. ”

In 2004, ten years after this dream,a friend of mine asked me to go with her to a church where the masses were held by a priest who had no dogmas,with a high conscience of what God and Creation meant.I was impressed with the way he treated the people present,like they were friends,like brothers,with great sensibility.This priest radiated love through all his pores,you could feel the christic love and the wisdom in all of the cells of his body.The deacon was a black man,which was surprising.I went many times to that catholic church,although I’m an orthodox.Only a few months later did I realise that the images in the sky in that dream were the faces of the priest and of the black deacon.It’s interesting how I dreamt them 10 years before actually meeting them.

I then thought that the dream was premonitory and that it was a way of showing me a path to take.Yes,the path was beautiful,with a lot of fasting and praying,with masses that lifted you to the sky,but something inside of me kept telling me to keep searching,to look inside myself to find the truth,because although the experiences from the church were unimaginable,something was missing.

Four more years passed by before I realised that I had left the images in the sky,and their place for me wasn’t there and that it was necessary,for my own good,to take them down.I was amazed by this revelation,because others had elevated Padre and the deacon way up high,they made icons out of them.Perhaps it's damaging for Padre too to be idolized,but for the ones who do it too.They forget about the Creator God and about the God in themselves.

The deacon was calling the priest „Padre”;after a little while the entire congregation called him Padre.To the church where Padre was priest,came people of all denominations,they were a mixture of catholics,orthodox,Jehova's witnesses and others.He knew that and he taught them to find their inner strength,to search inside themselves,because that's where to solutions to all of their problems were.He would say:”You can see as many priests as you like,but it's not the priests that solve your problems,you do,but in order to succeed try to walk the Path,try to become Christs.”

The sermons Padre held,his dedication to praying,helped many to awake their love and faith,many of them were cured of terrible diseases,or solved social and family problems they didn't hope they could anymore.He would than tell them:”Let it be clear,I didn't cure you,I didn't solve your problems,you did,because you accepted change in your lives,you opened your hearts to love,because God gives you all you ask,as long as you know how to receive it.”But the people that are frequenting Padre's church find it easier to think Padre solved their problems than to take responsibility for their inner power.

In Padre's church

During the sermon,I feel peace and serenity,a relaxation so deep,I can see and feel air molecules,they are molecules of bright,golden light,but they actually are entities of light.Than the air became scented,ozoned,as if I was on top of a mountain,and a cool and pleasant breeze was blowing.In that state of inner peace,with my eyes closed,I „saw” all of the people in the church,standing or sitting.Some seemed just shadows of beings,some others had ovoidal bright shapes,ranging from orange to bright yellow.Than the whole church was lifted up in the sky,where the angels were joyfully partaking the sermon.Than I started hearing every light molecule in the church,I was aware of them,I could see-hear them at the same time,than I felt I could see and hear with every molecule.”How can I see and hear this?” I asked myself and I immediately knew:all of those light molecules-entities were me – they were also the other people,because we are all one.I asked myself again:Who am I?Am I all of those molecules that I can see,feel and hear?And I knew that:you can see,hear and feel only what you are,you are what you think you are...

But Padre was not left alone,he was different from most priests and he had to pay for it.Maybe it wouldn't have come to this,if he didn't allow himself to be worshipped.But for me it doesn't matter if he was wrong or not,because I saw and felt the strength of his faith and the power of his prayers,like I never imagined a priest could have.And so his denigration began in such a twisted and treacherous manner that many of the people who cured with the help of his prayers started slandering him and forgot all about the energetic support they had from him.We all make mistakes,he is only human and if he did something wrong he'll answer to God,but in a different way from ordinary people,because the responsibility he took is greater.

Padre deserves and I deserve too to take into account only those sermons and prayers that one is rarely privileged to see,feel and hear.So with these thoughts in mind,I went to the sermon.I felt so much light and peace,so much joy and harmony.The angels were singing with us,they raised their voices with Padre and the rest of us to the Creator.It was a cosmic dance of joy,that's how I perceived it.

I opened my eyes and looked at Padre,but it wasn't him I was seeing.In his place there was a young man who radiated rays of light towards everybody in the church,light that surrounded them with a lot of affection.I close my eyes again,and above Padre,on a large white canvas,was written in blood:"He's a martyr".I opened my eyes again,and in his place there was a young man emitting rays of light,he seemed to be a Sun.I asked myself:how's he a martyr?

I knew from the lives of the holy fathers,from the scriptures,what it means to be a martyr,but what was happening to Padre didn't match with what I knew.Than I knew again:he's a martyr by modern means.Aren't denigration,gossip,slander part of the modern means?

On the other hand,I feel I should talk about the things that made me think in his attitude,because I'm certain that if Padre would be more flexible,less rigid in his beliefs,many of the people frequenting his church would change their lives in a harmonious way,becoming free,because now most of them are „addicted” to him and his prayers.Addiction is damaging in anything it manifests itself in.Addiction to church and prayer makes you lie to yourself,makes you forget you are alive,and the suggestions that make you feel superior for excessively fasting and stay in the church all day take you away from reality.

Although I enjoyed and still enjoy very much the sermons and prayers Padre does,because I feel the christic manifestation in him and in the others,I still believe we need to keep our feet on the ground and bring”the sky to us”.

I was aware and I felt for a long time that Christ is the manifestation of the Inner God,of the Divine Self-if you will- in all of its plenitude,and when we sometimes see and feel Christ,we become so relaxed and freed of thoughts that we allow our inner Divinity to manifest itself,projecting it outside of us.Or we see the Christ(I say the Christ because we are used to the christian vocabulary,we could call it our Divine Self) of others because we are mirrored in it.I believe that the Man we call Jesus Christ reached peace,harmony and inner love that he surpassed his human condition,that the manifestation of his inner Divinity became permanent and eternal,becoming One with the Creator and the Creation.

I lived these moments from and in this unity and I know that all the things we are afraid of,all the illness and the suffering are illusions.In those moments I didn’t care about anything,because I had the certainty that everything is as it’s meant to be,that everything has it’s place in the Universe,that I don’t have anything to be afraid of.Jesus opened this road for people,all we have to do is follow it through and from our hearts.

Because the people that rule the world from the shadow,that occult power they keep talking about,were feeling in danger of losing their authority,their control and the material advantages over mankind,they chose the most abject method of continuing their control,inventing christianity,in a completely different way than the way the first christians manifested it,for whom faith was in the inner power and in the human limitlessness,it was a way to be.

In order to give credibility to this wretchedness,they mixed knowledge inspired by the divine truth with lies and blasphemies,resulting in this culpability and guilt we go through today,in psychological and emotional traumas so strong that can only be cured by very well trained and intuitive therapists,some biotherapist,some monks and,rarely,by priests.But Divinity didn’t allow the to have their way too much,inspiring some contemporary priests and monks with the divine truths.I will get back to these thoughts...

One day,after midnight,when it was quiet in the house,I wanted to relax my body a little bit.I quickly succeeded to enter a deep state of relaxation,than I felt a fluid ray of light,of a few centimeters in diameter,lifting me slowly up towards the sky.Iwas sliding upwards on the ray of light,aware that I had traversed on the ray several skies and dimensions.In some places the sliding became slower,the ray was slowing down it's ascension,being heavier.A voice inside my being told me the Creator Father was showing me the way home,where I hadn't been in a long time(consciously) and,because I was missing it so much,He lifted me to Him on that ray of light, a ray that started in my body and up to the Creator.

Things were shown and said to me,I know they are incrypted in me,I know I know them,I just don't remember them yet.Everything in it's right time.I can't describe the joy I felt when I got Home,a joy so great,you could almost die.If the beings in the skies hadn't "anaesthetized" my senses a little bit,I would have melted in billions of pieces.It is very difficult to describe these states and perceptions of great joy and serenity,of truth.

The next day,I went to the country to my parents' house,to the house I grew up in,where my father lives alone,because for certain reasons my mother can't live with him anymore. I hadn't went there for over a year,even though the village is 40 kilometers away from the city I live in;I just couldn't go,I felt like I didn't have the strength,I was suffering every time I went there.When I saw how angry my father was,who in his lucidity moments is so gentle,I bursted in tears.A terrible pain was being released out of me as I was crying,a pain and an emotional blockage which I don't know when and why I had gotten.Did the ray of light take me to my biological father too?Could this be the meaning of the vision I had?

Just as in the journey with the ray of light,when at a close distance to the Creator Father the ascension became more difficult,when I went to my tellurian father,because of landslides,I had to leave the car 2-3 kilometers away from the house and I walked all the way home on a rough terrain.What does all of this mean?A part of me goes to to the heavens to the Father,and another on earth to my father.

Clearly the things I'd lived weren't an accident,there was an answer,which I decided to find.So I traveled back to the Creator Father on the ray of light.This time the trip was easier and but just as smooth,since it was the Creator Father who reminded me and showed me the way back home again.I arrived in a fluid,golden light,gentle and bright,of unimaginable sizes-even calling it infinity wouldn't be enough-in which very little lights floated and lived,they were one with the fluid light,but at the same time they were separate minds in a single colossal mind.One of those lights was my biological father,it was his essential spirit-as he told me,which is tied to his physical body on earth,in which there's a part of his spirit,with which it is tied with a ray similar to the one I climbed up to the sky on.

I felt and saw myself there,and the love I felt can't be described in words.My father and I,my mother,and everybody else had the residence of their spirits,their basic consciousness,right inside God's consciousness,inside the Creator Father-Mather,in the Divine Matrix,if you will.And salvation means becoming aware and living permanently linked to your basic spirit(you're linked to it anyway,you wouldn't be alive otherwise),through that ray,but in a conscious way,like Jesus,Zamolxis,Krishna,Buddha,Mahomed and other messengers sent from the matrix to remind us who we are were.

I was afraid I was going crazy as a consequence of these revelations and of the things I felt.Perhaps it was through my schedule of heavy working,praying and meditation that I managed to handle to such an experience,but also by divine support.My mother and my father on Earth are my brothers from the Divine Matrix,from the fluid,golden light consciousness of the Father-Mother Creator God.Should have I not been helped,should have I stayed in that state a little longer,I would have died,even though it only lasted for a few minutes.I would have died without any regrets,because I knew what there was like,there's nowhere like home,but I realised that I wanted to feel at home on planet Earth and that I will do my best,through the means provided by Jesus Christ and other heavenly messengers,to do this,to bring Heaven to me,to permanently feel that I'm on earth,but that I live in Heaven.God I wish this could happen,please,help me.On the other hand I know that although it feels like I was ascended in the skies to the Creator Father,I in fact,descended deep inside my own being,where He resides as my Divine Self, which is one with the Creator. I know everything is inside of me, that's why I was created "in God's image".

PART TWO. POSSIBLE FUTURE

1. Messages from the future

One morning I woke up a little before 6 A.M. and,being too lazy to get out of bed,I decided to sleep a little more.I don't know if what I'm about to tell you was a dream or if it was that state between sleep and awakesness that generates visions,because it was all very real.Let's say it was a dream.

I dreamt I left home from work,I took the elevator from the 8th floor to the first floor of the building and I headed towards the main entrance.I got out in front of the building,I took the stairs to the alley next to the building,but when I was about to step on the sidewalk of a street that traverses the city from one end to another,I noticed it was missing.In the street's place there was a tall,imposing building,with stairs similar to the ones of the National Theater from Bucharest,starting from the alley towards that building.Very curious to see how,where from and why it was there,I climbed the stairs,opened the door of the building and entered an immense hall,with a big white bed with white sheets in the middle of it,and a woman resting in the bed.When I entered,the woman got out of the bed,welcomed me and told me she had been waiting for me. I asked her:

-Where am I?

-In the future,she answered.

-What year?,I asked.

-Nano...(I don't remember the rest,but it was the year nano-something of the Universe).

-Please answer in terrestrial years,as I know time is measured now on Earth.

-I can't answer you that,I don't know how.

-Use your fingers to show me,I replied.I was surprized she didn't know the answer,because she spoke Romanian fluently and correctly,well,actually she was transmitting her thoughts telepathically,but right away she held her hand up with her fingers spread and started counting:

-Five,ten,fifteen,twenty,twenty-five,thirty,thirty-five(I enumerated because I feel this enumeration is very important,although I don't know why yet).She than told me we were in about the year 35,starting the count from year zero,but that the years don't have the same value I think they do,because time was modified and many things were changed.Beings were popping out of nowhere,I knew they were coming at her telepathic calling,they were communicating,also telepathically,than they were leaving.I did not understand what she was communicating with them,except that it was about my arrival there.I didn't understand what was going on,she wasn't saying anything to me,at the same time I knew there was no need for me to ask her anything or to interrupt her,when another being appeared(they were all women,but I know that's how they chose to present themselves).The being stopped at a distance from me and from the one that had called her there.

Suddenly,next to her appeared,out of the blue,a chair and a desk,with a miniature computer on it.The woman sat down at the desk and streched her right arm over the computer,which turned into a huge,holographic screen(it seemed almost as big as the size of the room),on which different images started rolling with a dizzying speed.I knew it was a performant computer unlike any other on Earth,in which the future of the planet was recorded.I was told that was the reason I had been called there,to see this future and to bring it to mankind.I told her I would try,but that there was no way I could remember so much information.The woman at the desk looked at me and told me:

-We'll give you a CD on which we recorded all of this information.She showed it to me,but it didn't look like any CD or memory stick I had ever seen.I told her:

-On Earth there aren't such performant computers and I don't know anybody who could help me decipher what's on the CD.That moment I knew I would find that person-simultaneously with her telepathic thought,which told me:

-We'll send you to someone who can help you.Although I don't remember being given the CD,I knew I had it,it was in me,it was me.

-I'll call you again and again,she told me,to show you more,to take them to your world;than I woke up in a state of safety,gratitude and peace,of joy,because,by the way those beings behaved,our future can only bring us good things,if we do our best to create it.

I was meditating about this dream of the future,when I remembered the vision with the Heavenly Father taking me to Him on a ray of light to help me remember my way home,the way to my biological father in my native village.I asked myself again of the connection between all of these,when I had another vision,or rather a clarity of life,which amazed me so much I thought I wouldn't be able to handle it.I later asked myself:what do the heads of religions hide from us?How much do they know?Why do they hide things from us?

I always knew religions are false,that they sell false beliefs to stop mankind from waking to the divine truth,than I instantly realised that the Bible quote:"In the beginning was the Word,and the Word was God"-is only partially true.I felt something else,I felt my Heavenly Father is the basic spirit of my biological father who is in the Divine Matrix as a consciousness of light,that he is a little dot,a tiny light in the immensity of light,but he also is my brother from the Divine Matrix.

It is difficult to describe the overwhelming feelings I lived,when I saw and I knew and I felt(although I intuitively knew this for a long time),that the Creator God is a Consciousness,a Living Energy expressing itself through cosmic Love-Intelligence-Wisdom,that perpetuates Everything,that is The Life of Everything.This Consciousness-Universal Intelligence and Love,which by emission of thoughts has created in itself-in the Divine Matrix-the Spirits of the whole Creation.Because the first Spirit created through thought(because in the beginning there was the thought,or we could call it the unspoken word),became telepathically aware of the Creator's thoughts,under the form of Words,this interpretation was drawn:"In the beginning was the Word,and the Word was God"

God is EVERYTHING,He is Thought-Word-Creation.All the Souls and the entire Creation are the fruit of Father-Mother Creator God's thoughts,who emits thoughts and continuously pulsates to maintain the life of His Creation,or better said,to maintain His Manifestation into Creation.Perhaps the Thought as a divine idea,precedes the Word as a divine action,but because they are both emitted simultaneously by the Creator,we can simply call them word.The Universe is always „paying attention" when it reveals something to you,that's why I felt so much joy when,a couple of hours later,after writing the above words,I met a man,a friend who's presence always pleases me,always makes my heart dance with joy,who smilingly told me:

-You know,words tend to arrange themselves,like in some kind of a hypnosis.

...As if he knew!Actually he knew I had been preoccupied with words all day.With a characteristic wisdom,he answered my question.

-Do you think words will arrange themselves so that I can describe what I'm feeling right now?

-Certainly,he replied,because although they were created,they will order themselves in such a way,that they will acquire new and new meanings,depending on their arrangement.

My intuition told me that the arrangement of words is made in realms,in dimensions,in worlds that are un conspicuous and uncomprehended by us,humans,that in a fashion known only by themselves,they arrange themselves when you're ready to accept and receive,to let the door open so that they can penetrate.At the same time,they get reborn,they continuously re-create from that uncreated energy,from that force that gives power to the Word and to Creation.Every second,God The Word re-creates Himself,in a continuous big-bang,maintaining this way the entire Creation.

All the Souls created by the Creator are in the Creator Himself,in the Consciousness of His Energy,every Soul manifesting its aspects in all of the existential levels,that's why we too,as Spirits,are multi-dimensional beings,the basic Spirit of each of us being inside the Consciousness-Energy of the Creator.Every Soul from the Creator's Consciousness has all of His attributes,including the possibility to manifest themselves as co-creators in the Divine Matrix,according to the Divine Law,which is encrypted in each of us.

That is why I believe,like others that wrote about this,that the authenticity of the prayer „Our Father” has been tainted over time,because Our Father is in Heaven and Everywhere,as an intelligent energy and consciousness that maintains the Aliveness of Life.An aspect of our Heavenly Father,of our biological father who has his basic spirit in the Matrix,allowed us to manifest ourselves on Earth.But our basic Spirit is also in the Matrix,that is why when we pray to our Heavenly Father ,we can say we are praying to ourselves,in order to acknowledge our own greatness.And because we are a thought-word of the Creator,why should we pray?Because the thought of the Creator manifests itself in the Creation,and we are permanently inside Him.The same goes for our Divine Mother or our terrestrial mother.The Creator Father God emitted thoughts that created spirits that have their home in the Divine Matrix or the Divine Mother.So the Mother-Father Creator God is a single entity.And the Souls created are one with the Divine Mother and Father.And yet we pray,using prayer and meditation as an instrument through which we can consciously connect our divine self to our self or our basic spirit in the divine matrix,until we will be able to subdue matter,namely our physical bodies,to the spirit.

The Holy Trinity.The trinity that we find in the entire creation:three in three,in three,in three...Science can already explain this.

One aspect of my father from the matrix,of my mother from the matrix and my own from the matrix,decide to unite and manifest themselves in a body on earth,to experiment under as many as possible varieties the planetary experience.(Could this be the trinity?).At the exit of this new trinitary Spirit from the body,every aspect will go to His basic spirit with new experiences.What a wonderful playing ground,what a joy the Creator has offered us on planet Earth,allowing us to experience life through the illusion of separation,so that when we feel homesick,when we arrive back Home,in the Consciousness of the Love of our Father Mother Creator God,we can live the extasy of meeting again!The Magic of Meeting Again that Eminescu,Bacovia,Cosbuc,Shakespeare,Dante and many others,in which the emotion of the home memory was very much alive and who had trouble adapting to the planetary life,have longed for.But what creative works they left us because of that emotion!...

I believe that our aspects that manifest their life on Earth wanted to remember secrets of creation,to bring these secrets on earth-on earth as it is in heaven-through the delivery from the illusion of separation and the understanding of who we are.But these aspects manifested this desire because of the thoughts emitted by the Creator,of experimenting different emotions for His Children,who are Us,or the Spirits in the Divine Matrix.

2. The Father-Mother Creator God started Her work

- information recorded from the future-

For a few decades now, the earth has been passing, along with our solar system, even with our galaxy, through some kind of a light tunnel. At the beginning of the entrance in the tunnel the light had a frequency-vibration similar to that of the earth, but as it advances through it, the vibration of the light is higher, the movement of microphotons more increased. Ever since the entrance in the tunnel, in that light with an ever growing vibration, all beings, in order to help them cope with changes, have been „anaesthetised” spiritually and physically, by our brothers from other dimensions, from the unseen world, who listen to the Father-Mother Creator God.

The light originates from the central sun of the macrogalaxy, which began emitting faster and faster pulsations, transmitted in the form of photonic waves towards the suns of all galaxies. The suns take over the waves and transmit them further to the suns of solar systems, and the suns of the solar systems transmit them even further to the planets. Every Galactic Sun transmutes and alchemizes the light received from the Macrogalactic Central Sun, then transmits it to the suns of the solar systems according to their own (ever growing) vibration. Then every sun of every solar system alchemizes and transmutes the light received through pulsatory waves from the galactic sun if the galaxy it belongs to and transmits it further to the planets that belong to it.

Every moment, the pulsations emitted by the central sun of the macrogalaxy grow in rhythmicity and speed in perfect harmony with the growth of the pulsations of galactic suns and solar systems. Billions and billions of angels (it actually can't be estimated in terrestrial numbers), coordinated by archangels, by governors of galaxies and solar systems, continuously participate in this process of great transformation, by anchoring the light in the entire macrogalaxy. The macrogalactic, galactic and universal order through which this work is done is so perfect, that nothing can stop it.

Those who delude themselves that they can stop the Creator from seeing his perfection in the manifestation of matter, are just fooling themselves. It's like a flea biting an elephant, and the flea thinks it can tip over the elephant. Beings from all galaxies and solar systems are in the ecstasy of waiting for the Great Cosmic Event, many of them coming to our solar system to participate in its passing through the tunnel of light and most of all to the jump of the Earth with all of the aliveness of life in another dimension of the divine consciousness,in another vibrational plane.

This tunnel of light is formed of the wave effect of the light being continuously transmitted by the pulsations of the great central macrogalactic sun,which are faster and faster.The more the speed of the movement through this tunnel is greater,the more the speed of the movement of galaxies,solar systems and planets through time increases.During this „journey”,beings get more and more „anaesthetized” in order to be able to cope with all of the emotional,psychological and physical transformations caused by the intensity and the growing vibration of the light.The veils between the worlds will fall,or better said the veils of illusion,waking to a conscious life as many people as possible,people who will start to perceive the essence of their beings and the divine belonging.

All of these mental,physical,emotional and spiritual changes and purifications determine the abandonment of old beliefs,superstitions,fears of any kind,or better said their alchemization in divine attributes that create joy,peace and serenity,and unconditional love for life and creation.It's the only way to enter the Grace the Creator prepares for us.Because we are now held in the palms of the Divine Grace,but soon we shall live in It.When the propagating speed of the pulsatory waves emitted by the great central sun of the macrogalaxy will be so high that it will transmit itself instantaneously to the suns of the galaxies,than to the suns of the solar systems,and to planets,it will mean that they are united in a single pulsation,that became the pulsation zero (0),which signifies the instantaneous death and rebirth of the macrogalaxy,the galaxies,the solar systems and the entire aliveness of life.But the central sun of the macrogalaxy began the acceleration of its pulsating speed through the photons or microphotons of pure light emitted from the central nucleus of light,from the heart of the Father-Mother Creator God.At the zero pulsation,the entire Creation melts,becoming one,in a zero time of melting,in the heart of the Creator God,becoming a single „I am”being.In those moments,every spirit-divinity will become aware of itself as a whole,inside God,as a thought of God,as an eternity inside infinity and as infinity inside eternity,or as God inside God.Between pulsation zero(0) and the next pulsation,the macrogalaxy,the galaxies,the solar systems and the planets stop moving through time,because time ceases to exist.There is only the period of time between the two pulsations,period in which we can experiment millions of years in a single moment without even realizing it.The old books talk and predict about the three days of darkness,but in reality the Light is so powerful that the physical eyes,which aren't used to it,are blinded by it.

What do three days mean at a macrogalactic level,I wonder?And who measured these days,if time ceases to exist?We humans always need existential reference points,perhaps that's why the visionaries of this period gave it a time,i.e. three days or a timeless trinity?The whole creation from the macrogalaxy goes through major changes and transformations,because the energy that maintains everything,i.e. the Father-Mother Creator God,who expresses Itself through love,intelligence,uncreated cosmic wisdom-these attributes existing as states of being-prepares Itself to be reborn,to rebuild the creation at different levels of consciousness.

Perhaps another macrogalaxy,with galaxies,solar systems and planets,is now getting ready to experience Life as our macrogalaxy experienced it,with everything that's in it.And with certainty the macrogalaxy,with everything in it,to which we take the place in the process of evolution,will also make a vibrational jump on different levels of Awareness and so on.Because in Creation there's always a comma,there's always a new experiment added,every particle of consciousness is going through all the worlds,through all vibrational planes, as eons pass by.And when you think:"That's it,we've reached the apogee of knowledge,we've reached the Creator!",there's another comma,that opens new roads,new evolutionary experiences.That's when you realize you don't know anything,that you are nothing,that only the Father-Mother Creator God is.And yet,you are you.And that overwhelming longing takes over you,that insanity of the desire to be again a part of something-to reach again that nothingness where everything began,Home,where you started your journey.

The insanity of all insanities,how can you get there,where you already are?

And what do we all do?We think we're Gods and we create weapons to destroy Creation?We fill our bellies and we stuff ourselves with food,drinks,sex and destructive thoughts?We believe that's how we create?We think we can rebel against the Creator and His Creation?

Just thinking about the greatness I mentioned earlier,you can go mad.But to believe you can stop this greatness,this work of art of the Creator,this order,you must be completely insane,because in his insanity every man believes he can do as he wants.

Let's get back to the time between the two pulsations ,when the Macrogalaxy will be governed by the Great Central Macrogalactic Sun through it's governor,who will coordinate the Governors of the Galaxies,who in turn will coordinate the governors of the Solar Systems,and these will coordinate the governors of the planets,order that will be respected after the next pulsation too,or the zero point of another beginning.The Macrogalactic Governors will be governed by the vibratory consciousness impulses,by the thoughts emitted by the Creator,by the Energy that Keeps Everything interconnected,from the uncreated central nucleus of light in the heart of the Creator.

Another pulsation follows,which signifies point zero,or year zero of the reborn Creation,and day 1.Planet Earth is going for the first time through this kind of macrocosmic experience,the experience of rising with the whole Aliveness of Life,that's why the passing of the planet through the tunnel of light will bring about deep changes in everything Life means.All beings of the Aliveness of Life,right from the planetary beginnings through to the zero pulsation,will be freed from everything they created in disharmony with the Divine Law,of all the fears,the physical,emotional,mental traumatismes.Those who oppose changes purposefully are,in the end, choosing the leave the planet;those who do it unconsciously will be awakened through diseases,depressions,or by the fear caused by certain purifications of the planet through natural catastrophes.

Somewhere in the depth of our beings we all know these things,that's why we came to this planet and that's why we all are in a kind of state of resignation,which we can all see everywhere we go.This is a positive resignation,because it means abandonment in front of God,because you know you can't oppose it.But this very resignation is what Gives you the strenght to go on,to continue to create,to enjoy life,to continue to be in joy every day and every moment.

There's another kind of resignation,that fatalism in front of Life that mass-media and religions suggests,these being manipulated by those who hope,in their insanity,that they can oppose changes,that they can oppose God.That fatalism that urges you to give up joy,to give up „living”.The macrogalactic,galactic and planetary change will happen no matter what we do,and the abandonment in front of God means allowing and accepting down to a microphotonic level the light sent to us by the Creator.

What’s actually being prepared for us is the awareness on all existential levels of who we are.Who are we?Who am I?We’ll have great surprizes in this regard,because,as we get closer to the pulsation zero,we’ll understand all of the wrong choices we have made in the eons since we’ve been created from the Divine Thought-Word,than sent,or thrown out by the Divine breath into galaxies,constellations and solar systems,to learn what we already know,but we’ve been covered with the veils of forgetfulness,we passed through those rivers of forgetfulness from our fairy-tales or the ones of other peoples,to experiment different levels of consciousness.

When we first came to planet Earth,the veils were thin,and we remained connected to the Creator,to the Divine Matrix and to the beings from other dimensions.It was like Heaven then.We lived in perfection,we co-created through the DivineLaw,the entire planetary ecosystem,we lived in happiness and love.

But some humans,or sons of God,created the first thought of separation,thinking that if they have enough power to co-create with the Divinity,they can take its place.That’s because,although they had passed through the river of oblivion,they were granted access to the majority of the cosmic secrets,so that they could live in happiness in the paradise called earth.That megalomaniacal thought was launched into the Universe,the Creator heard it and allowed this experiment to His children,knowing we can only exist through Him and in Him,this thought allowing only a mental separation from the creator,an illusion.

And because the Creator God allowed this,that thought was received by beings from other solar systems,very intelligent,but created differently from humans,with another form,another way of manifestation,which fed with lower vibrational energies.Because everything that is alive receives”our daily bread” through respiration-air is our basic nurishment-because beyond what science knows,the air contains nurishing thoughts or energies and information straight from the Source of the whole Creation.This nurishing energy-information can be found in the entire Creation,it is specific to every galaxy,to every solar system and planet,according to its vibratory state.

Once the megalomaniacal thought was emitted,the human ego appeared.The beings that received the thought of the Egos of the sons of God came to earth in their cosmic ships.These beings,intruders-being of a lower vibration and frequency,could only be seen by the ones who summoned them.And because the vibration of Earth was higher than in the place in the Universe where they came from,in an ingenious and cunning way started introducing in people's thoughts and dreams,especially during sleep,all sorts of fears,so that through fear they would generate an energy similar to the one of their planet,in order to feed themselves.Because Earth couldn't provide them the energy they needed,because they broke the Divine Law,the one of everyone staying in his rightful place according to the Law,they started feeding on people's fears,which they generated themselves through emissions of very low frequency,contrary to Nature and God.

Primordial people,these sons of God,were few on the planet,they participated in the creation of the ecosystems of the planet and lived in harmony with God and His Creation.They all heard the thoughts about replacing the Creator and,although they had the power and they could use it to destroy the ones who emitted them,they respected the Law,knowing God was allowing them to delude themselves.Because of them,the planet followed a different course in the Creation,in the life of the Solar System and the Galaxy,than the one that was prepared for it,everything,of course,with Divinity's approval.

Life in harmony and happiness lasted for a few thousand years on the planet,but along with the appearance of the thoughts of some of replacing the Creator,the others-sons of God-being afraid of losing their Divine qualities hid them deep inside,knowing the moment when they'll be able to show and manifest themselves in all of their beauty and plenitude will come once more.

Over eons Divinity has constantly sent messengers on the planet,to help maintain hope,faith and love,to help to keep lit inside human beings those divine attributes and qualities,until the moment of their revealing will come.

The planet and mankind have gone through these moments created by Divinity through its messengers several times,without fully fructifying their Light,because of the too deep concealment of their divine qualities inside of them.But because the people from there,from inside of them cried for help,also the planet that took over and purified them as much as possible,behold,God is answering,by creating that acceleration of the pulsatory waves in the Macrogalactic Sun,which through the wave effect wraps the Earth and the tunnel of light too.We could call it the tunnel of changes and transformations through vibrational growth up to a macrogalactic level.

The people who,through their thought,through their egos, brought beings of al lower vibration from other galaxies,together with these beings,are now on the planet with all the people since the beginning of times,because it's the time for the,,harvest"; what you sow is what you reap.It's a cosmic decision,from which nobody can be absent,nobody can run.

When God sent His messengers on the planet,the first created sons,then some intruders that couldn't stand the light and the higher vibration of the Sons,went back to the places they had come from,and others hid in places known only to them,to continue their evil deeds.In time,these intruders learned to take human form,their evil doing going so far as to take the form of many leaders who wanted to do something for mankind,annihilating them so that they could,or so they thought,finish their work:to subdue mankind,by chaining it in „energetic prisons" that create nightmares,worries,fears,lack of faith,all kinds of temptations,illusions and lies.

But in this period of passing through the tunnel of light,the intruders will be gradually exposed by the high vibration of light that surrounds the planet,and the ones summoned by their egos too.That part of mankind that will receive and gladly accept the planetary and personal changes,will easily traverse through the wave of light.They will benefit of the greatness of the Pulsation Zero(0),than of the next pulsation that will be point zero,or year zero,day 1,of a new stage of macrogalactic, galactic, solar and planetary experiences.

The intruders, who are in a greater number that we can imagine, some will perish in the process of the passing through the wave of light, others will try to produce all kinds of planetary disasters beyond those caused by the purification of the planet, thinking that they can stop The Great Transformation with advanced technologies-earthquake generators, hurricanes, floods or another world war. Also through technologies they will insert in people's thoughts unimaginable fears (this can already be seen), or they'' even create religious holograms on the sky, so that fear can be created from the fear of God's punishment.

This is where a lot of attention is needed, because many will fall in the trap. Think a lot, meditate, use your heart and your reason and feel, because the truth is in each of us. These intruders, as I said, are very intelligent, but lack emotional states, feelings. They know very well what's happening now at the macrogalactic level and on the planet and they oppose with all of their strength, because now, their fear is greater. So they know they don't stand a chance, even though on the planet exists the Law of the free will, they continue with their destructive intentions and deeds, they even insist upon them, but they delude themselves. Because The Creator God does not destroy His Creation.

In the moment of the pulsation zero, the intruders, the ones who summoned them and the ones who willingly obey them for material or financial reasons, will be expelled on a planet with a low vibration, where they will be able to feed on its energy and where they'll have to work make a living.

The ones who obeyed them out of ignorance or naivety, together with the rest of the people who don't want to awaken and accept the transformations, will be sent to a planet with a vibration similar to the one Earth has now, where they will experiment yet another cycle of duality, of illusion of separation from God, until they will decide to open their hearts and their minds to love. The Creator will send them heavenly messengers, who will gradually increase their planet's vibration. The intruders indulge in illusions pointlessly, they will not be able to do anything, no bunker, no matter how deep underground and how sophisticated will not protect them from high vibration light micro photons.

The ones that reach pulsation zero, than the next pulsation or point zero, year zero, day 1, will enter a light and a vibration so high, they will not be able to see anything. It is that darkness the Apocalypse tells about. In this period between pulsations some will die, but will be reborn on the enhanced planet. Others will fall asleep, and the ones better prepared will remain awake to help others. After the period of adaptation with the new source of light, with the new planetary vibration, they will wake up, confused by what is going on. They will notice they are no longer sick, that they start to be slimmer and more athletic, that they know many things without having ever learned them.

There will be a period of a few decades of convalescence for the planet and for mankind, of psychological and emotional adaptation to this change. Elders will gradually become younger; everybody will be and look about 30 years old. Sons and fathers, daughters and mothers will not be able to be told apart, but there will be another level of perception, through which everyone will simply know everything about the others.

Nothing is new in the Universe

Macrogalaxies,galaxies,solar systems and very evolved planets,at the beginning of their evolution,went through „tests” and situations similar to the one our Macrogalaxy is going through now.Technology always evolves before than spirituality,and they also experimented the destructiveness of the power of the atom like we did.

But beyond the power of the atom there is a force a lot more delicate,a lot more subtle,a force so great that if man would know it now,he could invent ships that could travel millions of light years in mere seconds,without being affected by time.This force is felt by some physicists and mathematicians,they know it exists.Not long ago new branch of science was born,quantum physics,which is just the ABC for the discovery of this new force,let's call it omat-from the anagramation of atom.This discovery will be made a few hundreds of years from Point 0,year 0 of a new beginning and it will happen only when mankind will be entirely ready from an ethical,moral,and spiritual point of view for this discovery.This revolution of science will be the greatest adventure in the pursuit of the knowledge of the universal beauty of the Creation.

As I already mentioned,every discovery will be publicised,so that the entire mankind can enjoy it.The atom and the omat are so related,like the two faces of the same coin,and yet so far apart.There is no connecting bridge between them,and yet there is....

The connection will be made by Man,because his possibilities are infinite.All of these discovered Laws will lead to even deeper spiritual and scientific discoveries,because from this point on science and spirituality will work hand in hand.

3. Amplification stations

But in order to make all of this possible,our brothers and friends from the Macrogalactic Sun and from other,more evolved galaxies created in our solar system an amplification station of energies,with healing effects emitted through the pulsation of the macrogalactic suns.

So that of these healing energies could benefit the entire Aliveness of Life,the angels and archangels offered a part of mankind with such amplification systems of the healing energies of love.I assume it's an additional chakra of the heart,some kind of an accumulator-transmitter of benefic energies.

They are like lights lit in the dark.Although these lights are seen or felt only by certain people,it doesn't mean they don't exist.From one day to another the number of people who awaken,who accept that love and faith are the attributes through which the planet and mankind can be saved,gets larger every day.

The more lights are lit in the dark,the more the light is brighter,clearer.

Some people were born with these amplification stations,others obtained them during their lives by praying,fasting,doing good deeds,and having a pure heart.But other segments of these systems have been activated now,with the help of which people can now see sporadically,sometimes even permanently,parallel worlds,those dimensions where we co-exist as multidimensional beings,from where they can gather information that can prove benefic for our current planetary situation.

This amplification station of healing energies for the planet is that „Energetic Cross of Terra”,about which Melfior Ra wrote so wonderfully.If some people's amplification „station” has been activated,it means that the planet has it too,in the form of this energy cross.It receives its emissionns from the Great Macrogalactic Sun,through the suns of the galaxies and of the solar systems.Whether we like it or not,we are being given everything,and we can only accept or oppose.But we know very well that opposing these energies means illness,depression,discouragement.This is why we can tame our human ego by loving it and giving it understanding,because for millions of yers it has been thaught to be the boss,through mysticism,dogmas,flase beliefs.

Although mysticism, religion and dogmas kept us away from the divine truths for too long through terrible psychological manipulations, the wheel is spinning again and now it is time for all of this to end. Most people, especially our pious peasants, know that God works through people, through signs and because of their pure hearts it will be easier for them to accept the planetary changes, the truths that will see the light of day. I'm saying this because they would understand it very well and they'd find it normal that God, through His messengers from other galaxies, would help our solar system. And even if they'd be a little frightened if they showed up in front of them, they'd do the sign of the cross and with the great faith in their souls they'd understand that what's from God is from God. They have so much faith in the power of the Cross, that no entity with separative thoughts from God can resist in the face of their faith.

Perhaps it could help us to try to feel like they do, if we don't have the faith and love for God as well anchored in our being. For these people there was no obstacle in accepting and receiving that amplification station of healing energies in their beings, because they think with their hearts, and they direct their worries towards cultivating the land, growing animals, birds and bees, towards household chores. Although I said worries, they really are just administrative thoughts of what they have from God, and they are aware of this.

Be aware of these country folks, we will soon need their wisdom. They do not involve in the village gossiping, they attend church on Sundays and on holydays, dressed modestly but nicely, they have clean households, when you see them in the garden or in the courtyard you sense they are one with their surroundings. They are very moderate about everything and they love life. They readily and joyfully get involved when help is needed in any village events, then they discretely leave. You can rarely hear anything about them in the village. They just ARE. Children feel very good around them, and when they become adults they feel as if they lived a fascinating story around them, the behaviour and the lessons picked up from them positively influencing their entire lives.

Only now, as I'm writing this, do I realize that I had the joy of having this kind of people around during childhood, who were completely misunderstood and overlooked by those around them, by their families. And they smelled good, these peasants always smelled good,even when they returned all sweaty from the working the fields,they smelled of basil and of fresh mountain air.

I remember well uncle Viluca,who knew how to fix any kind of machinery,radios,televisions,he had a native gift of knowing where the problem was and how to fix it.The entire village was coming to him for this kind of problems,they were looking for him from other villages too to fix their tractors and their threshers.He was the only one in the village who had a tractor between 1960 and 1985,which he let the entire village to use.In spite of all this,he remained the only one in the village with the house's roof covered with straws,and with clay on the floors.He didn't want linoleum,wooden floors,or tiles on the house.He wanted to be ok with what he had,as he had it.His children were ashamed,the entire village had modernized,the people were hardworking,and because the village had not been collectivized,the food was enough for everyone.Although he was the best craftsman in the area,although he could fix anything,he lived mostly in poverty,because he never asked for money for his work.Some people would give him a little something,others just a simple thank you.

The only modernization he accepted was getting electric current to his house and stable.He was so happy he didn't need to lit the lamp in the morning when he went in the stable,he only needed to press the switch.He was astonished by this invention and told stories about things he would have done as a young man if he would have had electric current.Electric energy was introduced to our village in 1971,when uncle Viluca was about 70 years old.He really enjoyed chatting with my grandmother.They were constantly joking around and laughing,but my grandmother once told him in a grave tone:

Hey,Viluca,I won't be around here for long now,I think I'll go back to God and I want to ask you to play the lute at my funeral.I don't care what the people will say,promise me you'll do this for me,please!

-I'll play it better than ever,I promise you,but I will also laugh at you and I will know this will have been the greatest practical joke you ever pulled on me,but also the best one I ever pulled on you too.

My parents and neighbours knew about their agreement and they were amused about it.But after about a year my grandmther fell ill and died,at the age of 82.After the funeral,there was a feast held in the garden in her memory,right where she wanted it,under the golden apple tree where she liked to rest in the shade in the summer,and uncle Viluca showed up with his lute.Miracle:nobody had anything against it.

My father smiled,nodded his head in approval,and uncle Viluca started playing his lute and singing,at first some sad and melancholic songs,the lute seemed to be crying,than,with every glass of plum brandy,happier and happier songs,until a part of the guests,at first with embarassement,than more and more ralaxed,started singing too.It was the most beautiful funeral I have ever attended,of my father's mother,which I loved very much and who knew to depart in such a wonderful manner.

How wonderfully these two people, of little education but with wisdom in their souls and knowledge in their hearts and bloo, laughed in the face of death!This is the kind of people I'm talking about,and they are still among us.Those peasants that when they look in the sky KNOW what will happen next,that have that deeply rooted wisdom in them that makes them enjoy everything that comes upon their way,through the door of life.Even though I deviated a little from the clear message,the one of equipping and activating the people with amplification systems of healing energies for the planet and the people,I wanted you to sense and to become aware of the their power int these people.Although God gave everybody these amplification stations,they were received only by a small part of mankind,the rest being too afraid to accept them,to accept change and their transformation into light.

04.01.2011

The great astrologers,astrophysicists and astronomers are all paying attention to the changes,to the dancing of the stars,before,during and after the solar and lunar eclipses.Although I said the „dancing ” of the stars,we know that these,as do the sun and the earth,have their well established role in the Universe.The eclipses generated at a galaxy and solar system level,every time changes happen to us people,not even now when we have such sophisticated technologies,we are not able to imagine.

These solar or lunar eclipses cause ,every time they happen to our planet,changes in the units of consciousness that are found in every cell and molecule in the bodies of all living beings,in the air,the water,the dust,stars,etc.in the Universe,but also in the cosmic void,in the uncreated energy,as thoughts of the Father-Mother Creator God,units that will be reunited in the Universe through the Word.Imagine how many units of consciousness are inside of you,how many cells-molecules you have and pay attention to how these cosmic phenomena influence you on the inside,and on the outside.Although some people complain about the burdens of life,the Creator gives the same to everybody,but the receivers are the ones who want and are able.And with certainty,the one who wants,will also be able,but in the boundaries of the divine law.

But in the times we live now,these effects generated by eclipses are multiplying in density,information and energy,because the messengers of the Creator,"hidden" by the eclipse,in cosmic ships of colossal dimensions,are purifying all information,changing the energies of non-love emitted by humanity into benefic energies.These messengers,angels or beings from other dimensions,do this continuously anyway,but sometimes emergency interventions are needed.Also,considering that the entire public attention is held by the eclipse,they can land modules on earth,to seed the embryos of the great change that's happening right now.

4. Social structure starting with the year zero

The planetary governors will be designated by the governors of the solar systems,which in turn will be designated by the governors of the galaxies,who,of course,will be chosen by the macrogalactic governor appointed by God Himself.The planetary governor will be recognized by mankind by the form and the color of Light.The governor of every macrogalaxy will have a council formed of representatives of the wise of the galaxies,the solar systems and the planets.Every galaxy will also have a council formed of galactic and planetary wisemen,and each planet will have a council of planetary wisemen,from several communities(cities,towns etc.),in which planetary and cosmic issues will be debated and analyzed,and transmitted to mankind through some kind of a television.

The planetary governors will only show themselves to the Council of Wisemen,these being entities from more evolved planets,having the mission of governing a planet of a lower vibration than their own.These governors,and their collaboratorsare actually the angels and archangels of today, to whom we gave mystical connotations. Perhaps it would have been better for us, we would have lived in peace and happiness, if we hadn't let ourselves be fooled and cheated by the mystics and if we had paid a bit of attention to what is going on in nature. Maybe even the ant has a consciousness and sensorial organs that are not yet understood by science; it can sense a man, but because it can't see him maybe it can tell itself the man is God, and that's only because it doesn't have the necessary organs to see in „macro”. But man has other possibilities and advantages than the ant and it is in his power to try to „see” beyond appearances.

This kind of coordination is valid from big to small, namely from the macrogalaxy to the planet-community. Because even right now, our brothers from other galaxies and more evolved solar systems, angels and archangels, are protecting, inspiring and guiding, from the unseen planes, from other Skies or Levels of Consciousness, the entire Planet and Mankind. But after Point 0, year 0, all of us will be able to see them when they wish it.

The workers of the Light, or the awakened, have been intensively trained for decades now, through writings inspired by celestial beings through the presence of many divine messengers, known only by a handful, who've been here for a few thousands years, by the prophecies in the scriptures or by the occult writings of different religions, through legends and stories of peoples.

Also in these times, the specialists in various domains have started thorough research, followed by experiments, that show, without any doubt, that the power of man is inside himself, that good and evil are both in him. Many of these scientists-specialists, who started their research to prove the total fiction of spiritual teachings, ended up believing the strongest in the Creator and in the Divinity or the inner power of man.

But since nothing happens by accident, these scientists are prepared from the heavens, at a vibrational level, according to their domain of activity, and they will learn after the leap of the planet into another dimension of consciousness that their knowledge of today will be the equivalent of a few primary grades and that they're starting to know things they never actually learned. They will be amazed of how and when they managed to know so much, becoming aware that their knowledge has and will be inspired by heavenly specialists in absolutely all of the existent activity fields. They will succeed to manifest,to materialize some of the information into the physical plane starting even now,of some other they are aware,but don't have the necessary power and energetic potential to materialize it yet,and some other information will remain encrypted in inside of them,in a latent state,until the moment of activation decided by the Creator.

Because these specialists ,right after the Zero Pulsation,will begin their activity together with other workers of the light in a way they can't even imagine now,because most of them will remain awake during the Period between Pulsation Zero and the next pulsation,to watch over those put to sleep by the Divinity in order to be able to cope with the passage from one vibration to another,and over those who will „die”.They all are today's workers of the light,of all professions and fields.Today's psychotherapists,the therapists specialized in energetic medicine,the well trained doctors in the planetary schools,but open to heavenly instruction,will have a very important role throughout the entire process of the passage of the planet through the tunnel of light,in the moment of the Zero Pulsation,of the period that precedes the next pulsation,or Point Zero,Year Zero of a new beginning,for everybody that the shock of the awakening in a new world will be too big.

But they will have the greatest shock when they'll realize that,in the period between the two pulsations,people close to them,their families,friends,brothers,sisters,wives or children,grandparents or friends,have left in a completely different direction,to repeat another galactic cycle with the illusion of the separation from God,in duality,because they didn't want to,couldn't or didn't wish to follow the call of their hearts and the mother planet.

They will all be aware of the great joy,peace,abundance and serenity that is given to those that made the vibrational leap into a higher consciousness and they will feel so much pain and helplessness,knowing that they can't do anything anymore,that it's too late,that God can't be fooled,that they fooled themselves.It is the pain and suffering mentioned in the Apocalypse,because they will see-realize how wrong they were.The separation will be very difficult for those who will go in different directions,but we each choose,and no matter how much some will try to go to the elevated planet,they won't be able to pass through the energetic barrier,because it will disintegrate them.They had eons at their disposal-heavenly messengers who reminded them where they left from and who they are-but they didn't take into account their teachings,thinking that their financial power and enslavement of others will last forever.

Because every person will become aware of their inner strength and immaculation of soul and,as uncle Ion says,will take their rightful places on their own.In the transition period of the planet through the tunnel of light,the messengers from above,each at the time decided by the Creator,activated their divine potentials with the help of our otherworldly brothers who came here to support and assist our planet.Once the divine potentials of these messengers will be activated,they will anchor to the mother planet and to the consciousness of the Aliveness of Life more and more refined,more and more subtle ,planetary energies ,acting like some sort of „energetic transformers”,protecting this way the ALIVENESS of too intense energies,which could short-circuit the energy canals,which might provoke great losses and its destruction.

I had the great pleasure of knowing and recognizing many messengers of the Divinity.Among them there is uncle Ion from Ionestii de Arges,who manifests himself in the form of an old,simple man,speaking the local dialect,who always says the same story,over and over again,which,if you record and then listen to it,you will new and new information each time.It's not even necessary to listen to what he's saying,it's enough to be in his presence to feel how he searches your heart in its deepest and most hidden places,to feel the blessing and the love of the Creator directly through him.But for that to happen you need to open your heart,because in the presence of uncle Ion,beings from unseen planes and dimensions,beings of light,angels,archangels,suns and galaxies governors,Jesus Christ the Divine Mother-Divine Matrix flow their energies of love to participate to everyone's purification.

Maybe it's not the time yet,or maybe we don't care enough when we hear about such messengers,but the majority ignore his presence in our country,although it's a really great blessing for this country and people,for all of us.The leaders of the country and of the churches know of his existence,but the thirst for power and the fear of losing their financial power and their illusory thrones of power makes them indifferent,or even aggressive.Because they always knew that our inner God,our spirit,our inner Christ has been crucified for so long and they are afraid of the Christic resurrection of each of us,because then they will no longer be able to subdue and manipulate us.They know even now that in uncle Ion Christ is Alive and that he can „contaminate” others with his light,he can awaken them.That is why they made of Jesus’ s teachings a religion,so that we wouldn’t become aware of our inner Christ or the inner power residing in each of us,and to continue to dominate us.

But it didn’t work,because God sent us messengers,within each religion,who transformed and transfigured the religions with their presence,who helped the awakening of the divinity of many people,so their plans failed again.They are the saints,each at the time of the manifestation of their divinity in its whole plenitude,being denied by the churches in which they were priests,deacons,etc.

But,although the „pharisees” made religious rituals out of Jesus’s teachings,His light got through even to the darkest corners,making their plans useless.Because they mixed divine truths with their lies,it’s the only way they managed to trick mankind.But the Truth is a Living Seed of the Light.

Despite this,groups of pilgrims from many cities go on a monthly basis to uncle Ion,listening to the calling of their hearts that the Creator God transmits to them.Many pilgrims healed of serious,incurable illnesses,or became chosen vessels,channels of the light of consciousness and cosmic knowledge for the mankind.

Maria Sandor organizes monthly pilgrimages to uncle Ion,13 books with the messages he receives from Otherworldly Beings have been edited so far.From the first message to the ones in the present a school of heavenly initiation has been started,initiation through refined and subtle information of light,which penetrate and purify the subconscious of the readers.

The fact that she had the courage to communicate to those around her,then to the ones with which she formed a spiritual prayer group where she began to receive messages filled with more and more teachings,then write and publish them,made this information get imprinted in the consciousness of mankind,in the energy of mass consciousness of mankind,being then transmitted through very fine particles to the entire humanity.Every particle of this light is a living consciousness of the light that will ignite the flame of the divine love and of faith in people.But these particles will be transmitted to the Entire Aliveness of the Planetary Life.

In our country and the entire planet there are a lot of divine messengers, channels of reception and transmission of divine information, which with great dedication impregnate the consciousness of mankind with higher and higher vibrations and frequencies of light.

We all know that if, between two adjacent rooms, one without windows or sources of light, and the other with big windows and an electric source of light, we make a hole in the joint wall, light will go through the dark room, making it less obscure; and if we make a door with a transparent window, it will become bright. The first room will remain just as bright, but it will reflect some of its light to the other room too.

The same way, the mass Consciousness of humanity will transfer to the consciousness of each person the light received from the workers of light. They, in return, will transmit the light further to those around them, through their mere presence. They don't have to do anything, just BE IN THE LIGHT.

That is how Uncle Ion is, his divine aspects and potentials have been activated at an old age, to which he arrived decently, with ups and downs, with some mistakes, as he says, just like any other man. But from the moment of his visions and of the reception of direct messages from the Divine Mother and Jesus, he completely changed his behaviour, being prepared through direct and clear heavenly messages, instructed to prepare mankind for the Great Judgement, as he calls it, or the Great Passing, when every person on the planet will know where its place is. Because each of us will become aware of the immaculation of our hearts, and that's what you present yourself with in the face of the Creator. With the light and the love in your heart, that's all that matters.

Uncle Ion is one of those divine messengers that came to anchor the light coming from the Central Macrogalactic Sun through the effect of pulsatory wave which created some kind of a tunnel through which planet Earth and the entire consciousness of mankind is going through.

There are a lot of messengers and workers of light that participate to this anchoring, but because some of them have jobs that don't allow them to show their knowledge, faith and love, they manifest it and transmit it through deeds to those from home, from work, from scientific conferences, etc, in order to be able to continue their divine missions without problems. Divine mission means respecting the planetary and universal laws that are inscripted in each person and teaching those who broke them how to return to harmony with the divine law. They do a wonderful thing, bringing the light where it is most needed, to intellectuals, preparing the way for manifestation forms of science through the divine law. They do this in such a subtle, sensible, perfect way that those around them don't understand what's going on, they just notice something changing in them, without knowing how, why and where this change is coming from.

The role of the divine Messengers and of the workers of light is very important in the period between the two pulsations and right after the pulsation zero, when those ascended along with the planet will awake in a completely new world, a world they don't know, without a part of their loved ones. These are the people with immaculate, pure hearts, but with little knowledge, not succeeding or not knowing how to activate it until now. Every person on the planet will then know what to do, because they will become aware of their most hidden talents, will know how to use them and materialize them, and they will get a lot of courage when they will realize that people with certain chronic diseases no longer need drugs, that they feel healthy. They will wonder at this state of perfect health, thinking they are living a dream from which they will wake up ill again. But when they will understand the truth....

Right after the passing, the first to jump to give a helping hand will be the ones with organizational inclinations, which will proceed to:

- arrange spaces for those in need of medical and psychological assistance.

Next will come the spaces for living, better said for sleeping, spaces for food preparation and serving.

- building the first communities

- searching for sources of drinkable water and transporting it to the communities

- looking for other communities, organizing the change of products and information between them

- organizing food producers, agriculture, horticulture, apiculture, etc.

- organizing kindergartens and schools .

After solving problems of maximum urgency, people will gradually organize in communities based on empathy, sincerity and skills. No one will be able to lie, because the other would know, so everybody will try and learn to live their lives within this divine truth. The ones that made the leap along with the planet, but will refuse to adapt, to participate in community life, will be excluded from the community for certain periods of time, to handle things on their own.

These decisions will be made by the wise of the community. Nobody will judge them, nobody will hold anything against them, but at the end of that period of time, if they come back to the community, people will know they will have learned their lesson, if not, it means they need more time. During this period nobody in the community is allowed to communicate with them, although they will be supervised with great love. Something will make everyone KNOW who the wise, the therapists, energetic doctors, teachers, farmers, etc. Are, because the light around them, their auras, will reflect their skills. These qualities of knowing, seeing the aura, and many others, will be gained once the leap of the planet on the new vibrational plane will happen. The ones that want to adapt, but can't, will be helped by the specialists of the new medicine, which is making its presence felt in the life of mankind even now.

4.1 The new medicine

This medicine contains all branches of current medicine, but with other ways and methods of treatment. Medics work shoulder to shoulder with psychologists and psychotherapists, being from now on conscious of the man in his whole, meaning physical body, soul or emotional and spiritual.

From day to day, those involved in healthcare will intuitively know new ways of treatment, following several decades, after measuring the actual passing of time, to deal with psychoemotional healing or energetic balancing. They will specialize so much, that in collaboration with biochemists, physicists, computer scientists and other specialists will develop technologies to totally renew organs or body parts, using the energetic matrix of the patients, knowing now that the physical body is just another form of energy.

This field will contain a totally new selection, with medics and psychologists that will inspire the medics that have made the leap with a part of mankind on that planet with the vibration-frequency of light similar to that of the Earth before the leap. These, through advanced technologies will be able to monitor and follow the ones who wanted to repeat another cosmic cycle of duality. Also, those of the newly formed selection, unseen, will be able to take part to the rescue of lives in emergencies, as angels do for us now, they are in fact our brothers from other solar systems and galaxies, with a much higher consciousness than ours.

But every occupational field will have a newly formed selection with the purpose to help it's brothers that decided to repeat another cycle of duality. But they won't continue life from the present technological level, but will take it from the beginning only with the knowledge from their memory, striving from the start to keep this knowledge and to expand them in another way than the one they chose before.

4.2 Chemistry, Biochemistry, Physics

Scientists will discover new chemical elements that they couldn't even think existed, and right after that they will discover The Law of Informational Interconnectivity of the Elements, which shows that, although these are clear, every element being self sufficient, in special situations of natural balance, some chemical elements will borrow information from other chemical elements, becoming the elements they borrowed or that gave them the information.

This phenomenon happens even now on earth in virgin areas, where man could still not enter; the elements balance happens naturally, through reactions known only by nature. Lucky that science did not discover this yet, as it would have lead to further weapons research. This is not about chemical reactions, neither losing or receiving electrons, but about that fine-subtle information that chemists still don't sense, maybe just some „crazy” chemists and physicists.

At science level, this discovery will have planetary impact on all occupational fields, because the Aliveness of Life, will communicate through angels and spirits of nature when in some areas there is a surplus or deficit of certain elements, and humans will be able to correct quickly after the discovery of this new law, will discover the methodologies to apply it. Chemistry, as a field of research, will be based on the joy of discovering the Great Work of the Creator, as will biochemistry and physics.

Future medicine will be based on this newly discovered Law and the methods of its application, especially surgery, that will be replaced by another field with another title, that implies the transfer of information of healthy elements to the unhealthy elements of the patient, regarding the energy matrix of every person as an unique matrix, then the matrix of every organ, that will be able to create wholly a damaged organ, a body part or the whole body.

In conclusion, we will stay forever young and will live on the planet for as long as we want. In biochemistry and physics, already knowing the Law of Elements Informational Interconnectivity, great steps have been made in the study of Interconnectivity between beings and the entire nature, that work together with the Aliveness of Life, discovering that the Interconnection in the Unit of the Alive is done by the Law of Microfotonic Interconnectivity, that instantly transmits any information to the Aliveness of Life, then to the Solar System, the Galaxy, Macrogalaxy, etc.. For example: if a leaf falls from a tree somewhere in Australia, the Aliveness of Life will instantly know this. Imagine how many leaves fall in a second on the planet and think with what speed and immense power is this law working with.

In these informations that are transmitted to the Aliveness of Life, they enter the thoughts of people, the words, the deeds, the feelings, the phenomenon's of nature, everything related to the planet, as energetic information and energies. This is why what Jesus said stands „I exist in every blade of grass” and that „you can hide nothing”. The Aliveness of Life will select what will send further to the Solar System, that will select what to send further to the Galaxy, in its turn this will select what will send further to the Macrogalaxy, and this to the Father-Mother Creator God, in a perfection made by Himself. „No hair will move on your heads without me knowing it” said Jesus – and it is true.

These new discoveries will fascinate mankind, without knowing that this is just the beginning of newer and more fascinating discoveries, following always others, that will show Wisdom, Love, Joy, Intelligence and Order with which God the Creator has created Everything. Order lacks only in the mind of a sick person, but this lack of order is just an illusion, after which Point Zero will not exist anymore, because all illusions will be erased, canceled. Life will truly divine.

Scientific discoveries will not be secret anymore, the whole mankind will be able to enjoy them, in specially organised ceremonies, in which the Greatness of the Creator God and of His Creation will be recognised. Don't imagine today's religious ceremonies, because nothing of what is mystic, superstition, religion will exist, the whole mankind, perceiving now intuitively, the divine truth. There will be that free joy, complete freedom that children exhibit sometimes.

Science will start research to discover the unit that interconnects informationally the elements, research will lead to the discovery of other Laws, that will make mankind evolve so rapidly and harmoniously that the leap to a higher vibrational consciousness will be easier to make.

Sophisticated flying machines will be invented, having the size of a model, having sensors with the Laws of Informational Interconnectivity of the Elements and their applying methods, that will enable that a certain command, will enlarge the volume and the dimensions at the capacity of a flying machine in correlation to needs, and at other commands to take off and fly with superlight speed.

Fuel will not be required for these discovered Laws will enable, that through certain technologies, each flying machine to „produce” its own fuel, that will not pollute and will not „drain” the planetary resources by its use. Others will come with more detailed descriptions of these Laws, I can only say that the current science of mathematics will be turned over its head when this discovery will be made, starting another knowledge and research in this field.

4.3 Agriculture

Thanks to the climate, agricultors and horticultors will be able to organise very efficiently and easily their activity, needing only aeration of the soil, some adjustments of the fruit-trees in horticulture, of the vine in viticulture and of course, seeding-maintaining-harvesting at ripeness. All pests, and the weeds will disappear or transform, leaving only useful things for man and the planet.

There will not be any more domestic animals, as we understand domestic today, not having need of them for farming work, neither food, because all food will be vegetarian and fresh. Very rarely food will be cooked on fire, nature giving mankind the whole range of fruit and vegetables rich in nutritious substances for man.

Because then, everyone will know how to pay attention to his body that will intuitively transmit him how to feed. Proteins and other nutrients that are now found in the meat of different animals, birds or fishes will be found in fruits of trees and shrubs. Even if animals will no longer be domestic, living in nature, they will be very gentle and friendly, and if a person would choose to have a pet, its approval is necessary, so that the person can communicate with the Whole Aliveness of Life and offer the pet optimum life conditions.

But this will happen only after 40-50 years after the crossing, when mankind will realise that it can make friends with the animals by going in nature, that it can transmit encounters telepathically when they will want to see them again and that these need or want to share some joys with people they made friends with will transmit them telepathic messages. There will be no danger that animals will over breed, the Laws of nature preparing breeding periods that will keep the whole planetary ecosystem in balance and harmony. No carnivorous animals will exist, only vegetarians. Can you imagine a bunny playing with a wolf, a deer with a lion, a lamb with a panther? You can start to imagine these things now, because this is the way it will be.

I will return to the link between man and animals, but now let's return to the farmers, that will see how, as years will go by, fruit trees and fruit shrubs, vegetables and fields of grain and corn, potatoes and other vegetables and fruits, shall create a very powerful protection and hardening system of their own, this because of human consciousness, that is more and more elevated, the reason for everything that hurt the Aliveness of Life will die off.

In total interconnecting of man and nature, this will supply food according to the wishes emitted from the heart, enjoying themselves in this harmony. The potato will improve its nutritious qualities and will be eatable raw. It will have a good and inviting taste.

Although agriculture, horticulture, viticulture and beekeeping will remain occupations, they will benefit totally new technologies, so that nature will enjoy and be glad of man's intervention, giving him its fruits. The communication between man and the spirits of nature will be totally restored, working together just in Divine Law. Flowerculture will benefit special attention, this field becoming a real art, especially when the floral and bees equilibrium necessary over the whole year (or a nano universal, I don't know how time will be measured) will be taken into account.

In the middle of any larger community, as a small town today, a large park will be established, tens of hectares in surface, that will contain the entire flora of the respective region. In the middle of every park, a hill will be conceived several hundreds of meters high and a few kilometers in diameter, on which a whole range of flowers will be planted. The beauty, joy, tenderness and completeness of these oases of beauty will make them springs of health and music for visitors. Music, because the angels of trees and flowers will enjoy us with their music, also the ones with the gift of music. Access will be free in the park, all people respecting and loving that place, and the people that maintain it. Because the only ones working in that park will have a calling and love for this kind of work. Smaller communities will create their parks proportionally to their size.

4.4 Buildings

All houses, schools, treatment buildings (hospitals), kindergartens and other buildings will be built with natural materials with such architectural shapes as to be in harmony with nature and the place they are built on. This can be easy to achieve, because people can now be consciously interconnected with nature, with the spirits of nature and of its inhabitants, they will intuit patterns of architecture that will fit in energetical and artistic harmony with the construction sites.

Also people, through common will and desire will be able to materialise certain things and materials that are required, but respecting the Divine Law, an intuitively known law, encrypted in people and all Creation. Everyone will build his dwelling according to his needs, not being permitted to build large houses, imposing with numerous empty rooms, the criterion to appreciate and respect a person being different. People will be respected and appreciated as beings, siblings, regardless of the function of profession. If one person would have more success in discovering and inventing new things, everybody will rejoice, because through collective consciousness everyone will know they had a part in the discovery; envy will be eliminated totally from the lives of people.

4.5 Learning

Primary school teachers, educators, high school teachers, whom I will call generically teachers will be instructed by the wise of the region they live in. The wise are the ones that will anchor divine thoughts and divine light in this new land, preparing together with all beings for another vibration leap after the passing of a galactic cycle, because in the universe everything is in motion and evolution. This will be up to the wise of those times, for us this knowledge is enough.

The teachers will start training their pupils by helping them know, perceive and interconnect with the Whole Aliveness of Life, from ant to star. As they grow, children will choose naturally the field in which they want to evolve in, without obligations to learn or do trades and jobs that don't become them. They will just know what is best for them, teachers will also intuitively know this, and those that have certain aptitudes for more fields, will be helped and guided by psychoterapists, of whom's working methods will be entirely new, inspired by Divinity and angels. Children will be guided in such a way, as they will be conscious of what field should they choose, other fields remaining hobbies. Of course teachers will notice aptitudes and talents of small children, every child being guided to what best fits him, in the same time learning new things, to form an overview, o view upon Life.

The whole school will be based especially on the knowledge of the Aliveness of Life, of the methods of communication with units of nature's consciousness, aspects that awake and are alive in everyone, who we call angels, elves, fairies, elementals, spirits of nature and stars, angels of Divinity. They will be taught to respect the mother planet, that supports them, protects them and feeds them. After graduation of the so called primary grades and high school they will go on to more profound learning, in physics, mathematics, chemistry and biochemistry, geography, solar system, the galaxy and history of mankind, but as it was in reality, the historic data of humanity being recorded by our solar brothers with special devices, for keeping in the galaxy archive. They will give us these recordings.

Altdough I said elementary and high school, every child will learn in his own rhytm, with no prejudice concerning the school, memory, prowess in learning, because whatver the children's rhytm to study, they will respect and love each other, so the adults will have a whole new system of perception and behaviour twoards children, respecting them since young age. Everything will take place naturally, children of the same age being students, others in high school and others in elementary school, whitout this causing envy for ones over the others.

But the organization of schools will be another one, taking into account in the first place of each child's intellectual and emotional capacity. For universitary studies, only the well prepared will be selected, with talent and desire to know more, to specialise in a certain field. The selection criterion will be based on results of their work in the previous years, but also on the decision of the wise, who will see in the aura of each the creative potential and fields twoards each is enclined.

Theachers will attend each to his specialty, on fields of activity. Research will have a lead role in every field, each scientific breakthrough being celebrated by comunities on the entire planet by dance and song, this being a way to thank the Creator for the miracle of Life they all take part of. Every people will be respected the same, the janitor as the researcher or inventor, rewarded the same way by the comunity for their work, considering that whatever the profession, the needs of the individual and family are the same. The difference between them will be just the place where they do their work, in the sense that each are presented with the facilities, matherials, tools and instruments to exercice their professions in the best possible conditions and optimum circumstances. The man is respected, not his proffession, what a person does with his profesion, everyone being conscient that the Divinity enriched every person with as much talent as it saw fit. Children are thought these things from a young age.

4.6 Planetary Laws

Love and respect your inner power – because it is the power given to everyone by the Creator, it is the God whitin in human form.

Love and respect yourself wholly: body-soul-spirit.

Love and respect interior power, the God within every man, because such as you, another one is part of the Whole, of Everything.

Love and respect every Person as a whole: Body-Soul-Spirit, because this is the way you prove you love yourself.

Love all the animal and vegetal kingdoms.

Love and respect the water and the air.

Love and respect the planet you live on.

Love and respect your brothers from other solar systems or galaxies that you will encounter and their way of being.

Love and respect their planets with the entire Creation on them.

Inform yourself and respect the Laws of the planet you visit.

Learn and respect the Laws of the solar system and the galaxy, because there shall be free passage, you will be able to go anywhere.

Love and obey the rules of the community in which you live or you visit.

Love and respect your family, the members of the community and colleagues.

Other laws and regulations, specific to every activity domain.

Law 1. To love and respect the interior power means to consult with yourself permanently, mind-heart, so that the choices you make can help you to grow this power, that means the evolution of interior personal power, that never ends, but which always brings new joys, ever greater, through continuous access of other planes of conscience, of other worlds, with higher vibrations that the one you live in.

Law 2. To love yourself wholly, to accept what you created, what you chose, love yourself as you are, conscient that you can choose to experiment something else anytime. It won't be difficult because the duality will not exist anymore, people won't even remember what this means, and all these laws enumerated and subscribed in each, as knowledge and consciousness. All these writings serve to know now, before Point Zero, to be easier activated in everyone's conscience.

Law 3. Love and respect the interior power of every man, conscient that the Creator God gave every person power as he saw fit and that everyone's interior power is a whole, that belongs to the Creator as does to us and it manifests through the collective Consciousness of mankind or the mass Consciousness.

Law 4. Love and respect everyone as a whole, as he is. It will be easy enough, considering we all will keep young, at the age of thirty, we will all be thin, handsome and very intelligent, our bodies will be a little different, diaphanous and enlightened.

Law 5. It's very important to understand that even now every animal and vegetal kingdom (birds, marine and river animals, insects, reptiles, etc..) has a conscience, a collective spirit, that receives every thought, attitude and our emotion and which can be influenced by us. How well has Eminescu put it: "the river, the forest, is ally to me only" and so it is, because the whole nature feels our feelings and helps in an undecipherable and „miraculous" way, according to the present labelings.

No animal will be killed, it will die of old age, but completely healthy, because there will be no diseases in the animal or vegetal kingdom.

The trees will be cut only in certain conditions, in selected times and periods of the year, just for well determined necessities, such as building a dwelling, schools, etc.. for this highly trained specialists will be employed that know the tree, when can it be cut, what can be planted in its place, etc.. Our elders that live in the mountains still remember times when they walked two or three days through the forest until they found a fir, beech or oak tree that was needed to build a house or an outbuilding, they knew that nature had to be respected, loved so it would give what you want. They wouldn't break these unwritten, ancestral, laws for nothing in the world as they were passed down through family and traditions. This is the way they could survive centuries of life's hardships.

And then certain persons were naturally given this knowledge, that they modeled and perfected with ones that had more experience. But now, science will prove why this knowledge is needed and how it helps us.

It's possible that this knowledge of our elders in the mountains, that is found in other nations, to be passed down from generation to generation as local habit, as an unwritten law, as is practiced in mountain and village regions, even by the first peoples on the planet, those that, after creating ecosystems and „filled the planet" with life, came here from other galaxies, to settle the first human communities on the planet. Many of us could be the descendents of these first people on the planet, old spirits created once with the universe, or we could be actually them, came over time, to reap the harvest over the eons on the planet.

All this made me remember an event about twenty years ago. It was the beginning of the spring and I was coming home from work. My work place was at the edge of the city, on one of the industrial platforms. I got up on a bus filled with people tired and confused by the recent political events in which they put many hopes. We were cramed like sardines, when I felt something moving on my neck. A man in front of me said to stand still, because I had an insect on me. He took it and wanted to throw it and crush it underfoot. I asked him not to throw it and show it to me. It was a lady bug that had just waked to life. I took it in my hand thinking to release it when I got out.

- What will you do with it? Asked a old lady that has seen the whole scene.

- I will release it, I will put it on a tree close to my destination. Then, the lady bug, because I didn't tighten the fist not to squish it, had exited on a side of my hand and started to take a walk on my hand. Everybody started to pay attention, less my colleagues that were ashamed of what I was doing, but I didn't care. It walked on my hand up and down until it fell to the floor of the bus. Somebody noticed:

– Don't move! Then he took the lady bug, gave it to me and asked me:

- What will you do with it? I answered that I will take it with me until I will get off the bus, then I will look for a tree to put it on, because it also has a right to live. I always remember that episode, because slowly, slowly, everybody on the bus became my allies in saving that lady bug, that escaped several times and every time was resqued by somebody else. It was like we all became some children responsible for the life of the lady bug.

These feelings of respect and love for anything that is alive will activate in ourselves and we will perceive easily what we need to do, how to behave in certain situations, even with our brothers and sisters in the Aliveness of Life, the entire vegetal regnum, animal and mineral. They say Francisc of Assisi, Arsenie Boca, Budha and many others, held speeches and prayers for animals, and they listened and perceived their messages, by energetic vibrations of words and interior power they transmitted. It's in everybody's power to awaken and accept these aspects of communication.

Law 6. We all know how smart and playful water is, what a good memory it has. It can, in isolation conditions (virgin places, where man hasn't been yet, or in the form of icebergs), keep information alive even for millions of years, then return it to nature and mankind after getting out of isolation. This information can be „read” by clairvoyants, who know how to communicate with water.

I remember now the children story, written by Lidia Barsan, „The snitching brook”, about a mountain brook that told all the secrets of the village it went through. Is it really a story, I wonder? If we love and respect water, drink it, wash with it, water gardens with it, what will happen? We will drink, wash and water our gardens with energies of love and respect contained in the water. Same as air, which is also a great receiver, keeper and transmitter of information. We love and respect air, with its qualities described above, and then what happens? We will inhale, along with the air, the energetic information of love and life that are in it, the energies emitted by our solar system, galaxy and others captured and accumulated by it. It is a continuous energy circuit between the aliveness of life, people and elements of nature, and in this circuit everything you give you get back thousandfold. It is the Law of Life: you will pay for everything, meaning that any thought-word-deed creates a cause that generates an effect which returns to the one that created the cause, etc.

Law 7. To love and respect the planet means to love and respect the Aliveness of Life that the planet sustains, Aliveness of which we humans are a part of too. What an oasis of joy and love the planet gives us if it feels our love, our protection and our respect for it! We can already do this, because all of these laws are written in us, and they will be easier to activate to the maximum level once the leap of the planet into a higher level of vibration, into a great consciousness, like the one of the saints, will happen.

Let's all schedule a time, once a week, or once a month, to do something for the planet that sustains us: to clean mountain springs, to pick up the garbage thrown carelessly by people with a rudimentary level of consciousness, by those „wise guys” who still think that power is in the muscles or in the money, lying and manipulation. The best way is our own example, and if they will laugh and mock, they will die on their tongues, when their children and nephews will condemn them. And children and young people don't give up, when they feel something is right and beneficial.

Their efforts to manipulate the young are pointless, they succeed with some, but even those will wake up, because this generation of young people was born with a different level of consciousness, much more elevated, and even if in some it was stopped by parents' or teachers' ignorance, it will still get triggered in them at some point, and they will take action. They will take action for a clean, beautiful planet, for a dignified and ethical life.

I ask the teenagers to have courage, to tell their points of view and to take action calmly and wisely, because the longer they wait, the longer the ethical filth will continue. They say that when you take a step, God takes one thousand steps towards you. So take that step, create NGOs, put the world and the energies in motion, give your talents to the world, and create! You may have the money, but if you don't have the courage and you don't take action, you'll never succeed in anything.

I talk so much about young people, because I had the „chance”, when I was running a production section in the food industry, to work with young students, hired temporarily, just for the duration of the summer-autumn season. Most of them, probably according to their education, came to work to make some money, but without the desire to do any actual work, thinking they will be able to „cheat”. I liked them all, I respected them, and I showed them my love and my sympathy, and in a short while they all learned the way things worked around the section, the basic procedures, the equipment and even some of the simpler preparation techniques.

An year two college student learned all the equipment in just two months, he was able to find and fix problems with it. All of them, the girls and the boys, got deeply involved in the work and in the problems of the section, and they came to overtime every time they were needed. With them it was easy, it was more difficult with the „veterans” of the section, who knew every this and that, very good workers otherwise, but they opposed everything new, any new product. According to them it was not possible. The first few months after taking over the section, I was „that woman”, but after a few good results I became somebody, I became „the boss”. I, of course, tried to get them to be paid according to their efforts,and,although the leaders of the firm disliked it(the administator was calling the workers slaves),I was onest and fair to everybody.

This is how I came to realize that even the older generations can be educated through respect and the fair payment of their work.Also in this section,sort of like a game,I used to remind the workers every day to take care of the raw material(fruits,vegetables),of the auxiliary equipment,because so many people had worked before in order for us to have these products,that the land went through winter,cold,rain and hot summers,that people worked it so that we could have these gifts that are called fruits and vegetables,that we used in the section as raw material.We only made 100% natural products.

But I keep jumping from one thing to another,although,as one of my friends says,everything is connected.If you love and respect,that's what you get in return,even if not directly.And I now know that,the more of us will learn to love ourselves,to accept and respect ourselves,the more others will be „contaminated” too,until eventually mankind and the planet will become what they were meant to be,a civilized and moral mankind on a beautiful,clean and living planet.

Law 8.Respect your brothers from other solar systems or galaxies,and their ways of beeing.I think this is a fair law,because we weren't all created the same,their bodies may be different from ours,less or more beautiful(according to our perception),with ways to be different from ours.Even before the zero pulsation,the beings that came from outer space will become visible,because the Light emitted by the Great Central Macrogalactic Sun,which accentuates by the day,will make everything hidden come into sight.

Some of our brothers came to Earth within the Law,respecting the Divine Law;they are more evolved than the others,they give a hand in the moral and energetic recovery of mankind and of the Aliveness of Life.Some show themselves in the daily life in the form of renowned healers,with results that amaze science,others work in research in various fields,others do their duties in secret,such as teachers,doctors,therapists,peasants,workers,etc.,because it is easier that way to break through human mentality.They only work within the Divine Law,which they know beacause it is written within them and each of them knows how to access it.So,no matter how much desire or power they may have to force things for the planet,to speed up the healing of the planet and of mankind,they respect the Law.

Mankind had a great chance,it was blessed by their arrival on our planet and by the responsibility they took to reveal that other brothers of ours from other solar systems and galaxies came to the planet to subdue it,to enslave mankind for their own use and satisfaction.

I wondered many times and I am now sure of what I'm saying;does God want us slaves?Is there any sane human parent who wishes to make his children slaves?Do we think we are above our Creator,such as to love our children more than He does?"Us,sinners,your slaves"-expression that we can find in many of the christian prayers.It is possible that these rebels,these beings that came to the planet disobeying the Divine Law,intervened in the spiritual movement initiated by Jesus through intruments,teachings and prayers that awake the inner creative and moral power of people,"un-enslaving" them from the suggestions and the fears inoculated in them over thousands of years.These rebels-intruders may have inserted this expression in the christian prayers,in order to amplify their suggestive power;this can be confirmed by psychologists.

How many well trained psychotherapists and healers does mankind need to be purified of these fears and suggestions,transmitted through genes and also through education?I'm going with the idea written by others, that these rebels,these beings from other solar sytems that came to Earth by breaking the Law,couldn't stop the movement initiated by Jesus in any other way but by using His teachings.Being very clever and counting on mankind's intelectual „laziness"(which they also inoculated),they transformed this movement into worshipping, idolizing Jesus,creating all kinds of mystical practices that we can still see today.And so to make mankind fall into he trap,they inserted their lies into the truths and teachings of Jesus.

But despite this,what Jesus has sown is starting to bear fruit; the inner strength,the Divine or Christic Self is awakening in people.Because right there,in the religion that they have created,enlightened minds kept His teachings alive,which are nothing but the Code of Divine Laws,which can be found in everyone and that He activated in those around Him.It is possible that Jesus Christ was one of our brothers from another galaxy,who came down to our planet with the purpose and clear mission of freeing mankind from the chains of fear,superstition,cowardice,lack of creativity,etc.

This is why this Law is so important,because soon we will „see” everyone who came from other galaxies.We saw and felt on our own skin what it’s like to be enslaved,to have our minds subdued,to live without joy and peace.But because every deed will be judged,you have seen above what their fate will be at the pulsation zero.

Another implication of this Law is that,after point zero year one,our planet will be continuously visited,out in the open,by beings from other parts of the Universe,and mankind will have the chance to visit many planets from our and other galaxies,all of these places being governed by joy,love,respect for the Creator God and the Entire Creation.We will see and talk to angels and archangels,our unseen friends from spiritually,ethically and morally superior galaxies to ours,who are now helping our planet.” Treat people the way you want to be treated” is valid for the whole Creation, so let us be aware starting now that times will come for which we are preparing, times in which we will have access to other worlds, that we will have to love and respect, to know their ways and laws to be able to live in harmony and stability with them. The better and more carefully we will prepare, the easier to handle will be the impact that these changes will have on us, because it is always easier when you know, at least partially, what to expect.

Law 9.Love and respect the planets with the entire Creation on them.We will visit other planets from different galaxies,where the beings living there have a way of life different from ours.They may have a completely different vegetation,breath a different air,and those who visit them need equipment and special accommodation conditions,which these planets,through its representatives,will have to provide for them.

Law 10. Get informed on and respect the Laws of the planet you are visiting.We have to respect their planetary laws,to find out what they are before visiting,so as to be able to enjoy together the chance given to us by divinity to see different worlds with their ways of life.

As I said in Law 9,some planets may have a different kind of life,a different breathing and feeding way,and if the planetary representatives create favorable conditions for us to visit,it is right to respect their laws and rules,showing them that we respect them and at the same time proving to ourselves that we love and respect our own lives. We're living in an age where this is very close to happening – and the fear of the unknown, deeply seeded in us, could be freed or at least improved through becoming aware of the possible future achievements of mankind, among which this one too.

Law 11. Learn and respect the Laws of the solar system and of the galaxy, because there will be free passing, you will be able to go anywhere. All of this will be well organised, in the form of laws and rules, for traveling in our galaxy, and in others too. The Macrogalactic Council, represented by its Governor, will make these laws and rules for every galaxy, solar system and planet, as basic rules and laws, which every galaxy, solar system and planet will adapt, according to their way of life and the conditions each will have to create for their brothers from other galaxies; "cosmic tourism centers" will be created, similar to the tourism agencies existing now on Earth, where representatives of the entire Universe will collaborate to find solutions for the desires of all tourists.

This is what it's going to be like after point zero, except tourism will be not only planetary but also macrogalactic. Of course, hundreds of years will pass, perhaps four or five hundred starting from year one, before all this will be a thing of the ordinary. But don't be afraid, most of the people who will be there in the year 1 day 1 of the new beginning will get to live these times of great changes in the evolution of mankind. I will always remind people that all the fears, superstitions and fake beliefs have been removed a long time ago from mankind, being replaced with the faith in the unlimited evolution of the human being, with the joy of living in peace and harmony anywhere on our planet or on any of the planets of the Universe.

Law 12. Love and respect the rules of the community in which you live in or which you are visiting. In each community the planetary Laws and Rules will apply, but each may have additional rules. These rules, however, will exist only to make life in the community easier and they will be easy to respect by all the members of the community. The saying „rules are made to be broken" will forever disappear, because these new rules will be a natural part of the way of being, feeling and living of the people, they will be in perfect harmony with the demands, expectations and desires. And even if these rules will be written and taught,the common sense that will manifest in each person will make them respect the rules even without knowing them,because they are written in everyone,and the „perturbators” of souls and consciousnesses will no longer exist.

Law 13. Love and respect your family,the members of your community and your colleagues.Through love and respect a harmonious connection will be created between all colleagues,members of the family and of the community.Every person will be taught since infancy to accept the others as they are,that no one is above the others.Family,as the main ethical and moral supporter of mankind,will be protected through law,family being the starting point of learning for everyone.Every member of the family will understand and accept the other as he/she is,the members of the community and the colleagues also,and the concealment of truth will be out of the question,for now everyone will be able to see the light,the others’ auras.You have no other solution than to be sincere and perfect,ideals and desires we all reach after,the Creator gives them to us as of now,so that when life will only be possible in perfection we will be well prepared.We have learned to hide even the smallest things in order to not hurt those around us,those who perceive things differently from us,but this will soon be over.That is when we will live in the plenitude of our beings,just like Jesus.

Law 14. Other laws and rules,for each field of activity.Here things are clear,because the rules valid in education,for instance,will be different from the ones in medicine,the ones in atomic research-different from the ones in transportation,etc.All of these rules and laws are given as their essence,but they will be complete,ample and clear,for each and every field.

By respecting all of these laws,you prove that you love God the Creator,yourself,along with the entire seen and unseen Creation.

But for all of this to happen,mankind has been intensely prepared,for about 20-30 years now,through messengers of light.They are coming from different social environments,ranging from simple people to licensees of prestigious universities.They easily recognize each other and they feel good together,they accept,love and help each other,even when they just met.They excel in all activity fields(such as medicine, mathematics, physics and psychology), despite not being understood by their colleagues.

Peasant or mountain healers, also the ones from cities, are getting increasingly acknowledged; they faced their own fears, their families and friends and started to fulfill their destinies—to help the progress of energetic medicine and psychology, through learned or intuited methods which they use as a basis for the treatment or therapy of the people who can't get any help from allopathic medicine, or worse, don't even get a diagnosis—many of them being considered hypochondriacal by their families or doctors.

We are definitely in the period before the pulsation zero, when all the worlds are merging into a single entity, because what is happening now on the planet coincides with the predictions of the ancients, who foretold the end of this world and the beginning of a new one, meaning that a radical change will happen in the consciousness of mankind, which will lead to another level of understanding of life—taking care, respecting and loving the entire Creation along with the Aliveness of Life.

The planet started its purifying process years ago through all kinds of natural calamities, but apparently some irresponsible people, in their thirst for power and wanting to preserve their material and financial privileges over the world, "manufactured" themselves all sorts of disturbances and disasters of the planet, in order to create even more panic, and, probably, to pose afterwards as „saviours" in difficult moments and regain the control which they are in danger of losing. They have the experience of thousands of years in this kind of maneuvers and they are surrounded with very skilled people, experts in various fields. These do it for personal gain or under the threat of having their families or themselves destroyed.

The mysteries of the Universe can be intuited by some people, can be deciphered, to a large extent, by science, at least that's what we believe now. But, although man is created in God's image, he can express these divine qualities and attributes only by respecting the cosmic law, that is why it will be impossible for man to see mysteries that the Universe doesn't want to reveal.

So, we can intuit some events, we can even predict them, but nothing is sure, the future isn't static, it's in a continuous movement and transformation, based on the thoughts and the energies mankind emits every second. That is why some predictions happen, and some don't. Maybe a moment will come when a large part of mankind will spontaneously have a pure thought, an immaculate thought of love, a thought of becoming aware of who we are, a thought to which all children and teenagers will adhere, to give the planet the impulse to transcend into another plane of consciousness-when the universe will open its gates and allow it. This may happen during the pulsation zero, or some time before, to allow us to adjust more easily to this cosmic moment to which our planet is invited too.

For the mother planet and for mankind it will be the greatest cosmic event, because it will return to what it was in the beginning of times, a planet on which people will experiment love and the beauty of life through the aware and permanent connection to divinity, a planet on which duality will only be known from the history of the planet.

Let's hope that the majority of mankind will go through these changes without any problems and that we'll enjoy together what the Universe is preparing for us, that Earth will get back its rightful place in the galaxy. I believe we are incredibly privileged to live in these times of change, because we will take part to one of the most grandiose macrogalactic spectacles that ever happened, that will pave the way for new opportunities of experimenting and expressing life.

The Mystery of Life

The Mystery from the Secret of Secrets

Is you,or him,or her,or I

Hidden in the revealed

Depth of Creation.

It's everywhere around us

Inside us,in the dust,or in the suns,

In the mountains,the insects or the flowers

And in the green of the forests.

In the eyes of children laughing,

Or of the ones that cry,

In the sweet milk of the mother,

Or in the creativity of the father.

In the sun of the morning
And in the joy of life,
In the starry nights
And in the scented love.

Eternal Love

I have been loving you for eons
But see how much I love God
The Mother-Father Creator
Who put a spring in my heart
Forever running
A river of love.
If you want or not to remember
All of this, 'cause you are too
From where I come from
The heart of God
So, you are a god too.

Creation

From chaos, out of nothing
The first thought transcended
Becoming Word
Creation-Universe.
Perhaps I come from chaos,
Perhaps I come from nothing
Perhaps all is but a thought

Expressed as Human with a Word.

The Words that arrange themselves
Create new worlds,new universes,
In an eternal and hypnotic tale
Of consolation and of love.

Se poate spune despre această carte ca e o sursă sigură de optimism și ingenuitate. Am trăit o bucurie mereu nouă citind-o, pentru ca ea aduce gândurile și sentimentele copilului care știe cu certitudine că nu trebuie să-și ajusteze gândirea de dragul normelor sociale. Cartea este de altfel scrisă astfel încât empatia cu autorul să poată fi maximă. Veți fi probabil surprinși de tonul cărții, direct și politicos, ca o discuție în privat, la un ceai, cu un necunoscut despre care ai de la început un sentiment bun. Pretențiile cărții sunt îndreptate doar indirect spre cititor, ea fiind un quasi-jurnal al unei vieți pe scurt, o călătorie în doi, printre rânduri. Cartea Ulmei E. Luca vă invită să meditați asupra unor aspecte ale vieții, fără a da verdicte, fără a face încercări de a vă impresiona. Cartea vă transmite, în fapt, care a fost calea pe care a ales-o, din copilărie și până la maturitate, un om.

Ioana Sumurducan, antropolog

În vremuri în care oferta de carte îmbogățește tot mai mult o viziune integratoare a universului și existenței, cartea de față este unică prin aceea că spune o poveste profund personală, propunând cu simplitate și precizie perspectiva unui viitor ce transformă și purifică.

Atmosfera de jurnal al devenirii este cuceritoare prin autenticitatea sufletească și naturalețea împărtășirii. Lipsește emfaza ce ispitește în mod natural autodezvăluirea, cu atât mai mult cu cât că autoarea oferă o adevărată inițiere în lumea de dincolo de limitele aparentului.

Structurată în două părți, cartea este o ingenuă redare a înțelegerilor pe care propria experiență le-a revelat autoarei, pe fundalul sufletesc al unei imense poftă de viață și de sens. Partea de Căutări, o candidă aducere aminte a vremurilor eternizate ale copilăriei, este urmată de un salt în planuri ce permit limpeziri macro-cosmice.

Mesajul psihologic este o reafirmare a convingerii că asumarea responsabilității pentru propria existență ne va elibera și ne va lumina viața.

Simona Iordăchescu, psihoterapeut